

For my second work in the Parallel Bible series, I decided to work on Romans. It is the beloved apostle Paul that leaves most Christians completely confused about the will of God. Who is God? Is he a God that demands blood of an innocent man, his "son" for our sin? That's why I hope this reveals that God is not who Paul says he is. For this edition, I decided to go verse by verse unless the context absolutely demands a grouping of the verses. It allows finer detail in my commentary and use of parallel passages. I may go back and revise Matthew to be the same way.

{Rom 1:1 LSB} Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called as an apostle, having been set apart for the gospel of God,

1. Not a single Prophet calls themselves a slave of YHWH, but here we have Paul declaring he is a slave of Jesus.

2. The way Paul uses the verb "Christos" the anointed, to anoint" is odd. When Saul was anointed (Christos) David didn't call him "Christos Saul" {1Sa 24:6 LSB} So he said to his men, "Far be it from me because of Yahweh that I should do this thing to my lord, the anointed (Christos / Messiah) of Yahweh, to send forth my hand against him, since he is the anointed of Yahweh." David used it as a verb, that Saul was ANOINTED, not this titular "Christos Jesus" which is from the Hellenized Jews believing in a glorified man son of David, the "HaMaschiach" to come back and rule and reign over Jerusalem. I strongly believe now however, these prophets expected this to be a resurrected David. {Hos 3:5 LSB} Afterward the sons of Israel will return and seek Yahweh their God and David their king; and they will come in dread to Yahweh and to His goodness in the last days. He doesn't say a "SON OF DAVID" and Jeremiah uses the same language. {Jer 30:9 LSB} 'But they shall be a slave to Yahweh their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them. He literally is telling us that he will raise up DAVID their King, not a SON. But DAVID will reign over them.

3. Paul was a self-declared Apostle. Read the beginning of Acts.

{Act 1:21-22 LSB} "Therefore it is necessary that of the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us-- beginning with the baptism of John until the day that He was taken up from us--one of these {must} become a witness with us of His resurrection."

What are the requirements of an Apostle (and they chose the replacement here)

I. Men who accompanied them all the time of the ministry

II. They saw the baptism (which is absent from John)

III. They saw the ascension after the resurrection Not only does Paul not meet that, but no Mormon apostle meets that. 2 Peter (which is also written against Paul) says this:

{2Pe 1:16-18 LSB} For we did not make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, following cleverly devised myths, but being eyewitnesses of His majesty. For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, such an utterance as this was made to Him by the Majestic Glory, "This is My beloved Son with whom I am well-pleased"-- and we ourselves heard this utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain. The true apostles according to this writer were also eyewitnesses (which Paul wasn't, which is why the translation that makes Paul seem like a "Brother" in 2 Peter 3:15-17 is off) They saw the transfiguration (missing from Luke, which is why it's not talked about in Acts) and they heard the voice of Nephele calling out "this is my son". Paul heard and saw none of that, and by these two witnesses in the New Testament Christians love? Paul cannot be an apostle.

4. Paul then claims to be set apart - this is particularly odd given Paul's own confessions in other epistles under his name.

{Gal 2:11-13 LSB} But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. For prior to the coming of certain men from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles, but when they came, he {began to} shrink back and separate himself, fearing the party of the circumcision. And the rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, with the result that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

According to Galatians, he calls out Cephas hypocrisy for acting like a Jew around the Jews and a Gentile around the Gentiles. This is absolutely not "set apart".

But the even stranger thing is to a different crowd? Paul boasts of the same "hypocrisy".

{1Co 9:20-21 LSB} And to the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might win Jews. To those who are under the Law, as under the Law though not being myself under the Law, so that I might win those who are under the Law. To those who are without law, as without law, though not being without the law of God but under the law of Christ, so that I might win those who are without law. "Do all things" for the sake of his Gospel is NOT set apart.

{Rom 1:2 LSB} which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the holy Scriptures,

This is Paul's claim, that everything he's about to explain was promised beforehand through the Prophets. My claim with this parallel Bible is Paul is a self-confessed liar.

{Rom 1:3 LSB} concerning His Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh,{Isa 56:1-6 LSB} Thus says Yahweh, "Keep justice and do righteousness, For My salvation is about to come And My righteousness to be revealed. "How blessed is the man who does this, And the son of man who takes hold of it, Who keeps from profaning the sabbath, And keeps his hand from doing any evil." Let not the foreigner who has joined himself to Yahweh say, "Yahweh will surely separate me from His people." Nor let the eunuch say, "Behold, I am a dry tree." For thus says Yahweh, "To the eunuchs who keep My sabbaths, And choose what pleases Me, And hold fast My covenant, To them I will give in My house and within My walls a memorial, And a name better than that of sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name which will not be cut off. "Also the foreigners who join themselves to Yahweh, To minister to Him, and to love the name of Yahweh, To be His slaves, every one who keeps from profaning the sabbath And takes hold of My covenant,	Let's get the first elephant out of the way immediately. Jesus is not the Son of God.{Exo 4:22 LSB} "Then you shall say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says Yahweh, "Israel is My son, My firstborn. {Hos 11:1 LSB} When Israel {was} a youth I loved him, And out of Egypt I called My son.Israel is the Son of God, the reason Matthew changed Hosea 11 to be about Jesus is because of Paul's declaration that he was the Son of God.Secondly, according to Matthew and Luke, Jesus was not born of David according to the flesh. Lineage comes through the Father not the Mother.
{Rom 1:4 LSB} who was designated as the Son of God in power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,	Is the designation given Israel about power or their inheritance? Would the Spirit of God lead you to believe things contrary to what the Prophets told Moses and Hosea?Would the resurrection of the dead prove these contrary things the new truth? {Deu 13:1-3 LSB} "If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder comes true, concerning which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us walk after other gods (whom you have not known) and let us serve them,' you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams; for Yahweh your God is testing you to find out if you love Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
{Rom 1:5 LSB} through whom we received grace and apostleship for {the} obedience of faith among all the Gentiles for the sake of His name,	Paul is admitting (and he does this several times) of a NEW THING, that this is NOT what Moses received, it is a NEW REVELATION. Second - would YHWH use the name of a man?Zec 14:9 And Yahweh will be king over all the earth; in that day Yahweh will be alone, and His name the only one.
{Rom 1:6 LSB} among whom you also are the called of Jesus Christ;	{Deu 18:20-22 LSB} 'But the prophet who speaks a word presumptuously in My name which I have not commanded him to speak, or which he speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.' "Now you may say in your heart, 'How will we know the word which Yahweh has not spoken?' "When a prophet speaks in the name of Yahweh, if the thing does not come about or come true, that is the thing which Yahweh has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him. YHWH God never called anyone through “Jesus Christ” - again we see Paul using the term the “anointed” as some sort of title.

{Rom 1:7 LSB} to all who are beloved of God in Rome, called as saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.	“The beloved of God in Rome” - strange thing to say, isn’t it? Will the Torah flow forth from Rome or Zion? {Isa 2:1-4 LSB} The word which Isaiah the son of Amoz beheld concerning Judah and Jerusalem. Now it will be that In the last days The mountain of the house of Yahweh Will be established as the head of the mountains, And will be lifted up above the hills; And all the nations will stream to it. And many peoples will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, To the house of the God of Jacob, That He may instruct us from His ways And that we may walk in His paths.” For from Zion the law will go forth And the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem. And He will judge between the nations, And will render decisions for many peoples; And they will hammer their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, And never again will they learn war.
{Rom 1:8 LSB} First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.	Such a strange sentiment from the man who says, “no one can boast”, boasting of the faith of Rome.
{Rom 1:9 LSB} For God, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of His Son, is my witness {as to} how without ceasing I make mention of you,	We’ve established the Son of YHWH God is Israel, so the one he’s serving the “Gospel” of this being is not of YHWH God. But what we see here is psychological, Paul buttering up the audience with praise.
{Rom 1:10 LSB} always in my prayers earnestly asking, if perhaps now at last by the will of God I may succeed in coming to you.	Paul is always promising to come and visit them, it makes me wonder how many of these epistles were ghost writers for the man.
{Rom 1:11 LSB} For I long to see you so that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, that you may be strengthened;	Ah yes, remember when Moses imparted spiritual gifts? Oh wait that didn’t happen, just as he never had to cast out demons.
{Rom 1:12 LSB} that is, to be mutually encouraged, {while} among you, by each other’s faith, both yours and mine.	This is what Christianity is really built upon - not the contradicting words of the New Testament, the Torah and the Prophets. No - and this is also why other books exhort coming together and mutually encouraging one another. Not with the words that truly bring life (Torah) but with testimonies of things you take note of and credit Jesus for.
{Rom 1:13 LSB} I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that often I have planned to come to you (and	“Some fruit among you” is such a weird use of this term. In the Torah and the Prophets, “fruit” is the seed of the man have been prevented so far) so that I may have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles.	and the woman, their children. The way Paul is using it is as if he's the Father of their faith. He doesn't actually believe he's their father contradicting Jesus does he?{Mat 23:9 KJV} And call no {man} your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.(And Jesus, not being in heaven, didn't believe he was the Father. That came later in John) {1Co 4:15-16 KJV} For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet {have ye} not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me. Instead of singing, "I have decided to follow Jesus" they should sing, "I have decided to follow Paul and recognize him as my spiritual Father."

{Rom 1:14 LSB} I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.	Under obligation by what or whom? This is another clear contradiction between Moses and the New Testament. Moses was never commanded by YHWH to have his chosen Son - Israel, go out among the nations and convert them to what I am teaching you. How then would they be "set apart" if they are like all nations? Further I think this is against YHWH's will because of what happens in Genesis 9 to 11. After the flood, YHWH commands:{Gen 9:7 KJV} And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein. But they didn't, they were captured under the gott spell of Nimrod, caught in the net of that fisher of men, that great hunter of men. They lost their identity and became brick makers. Then Nimrod instructed them to use the bricks to build a tower to heaven. {Isa 14:12-13 KJV} How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! {how} art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:What does every Christian believe? What do they go to all the Earth to do? Convert people to become brick makers (evangelists) to build their tower to heaven, through the cross of Jesus. That they will ascend to Heaven, that they will become like the most high God. We also see this in Acts, which I'll also cover in depth in that parallel bible - YHWH divided man's tongues so they would obey him, scatter over the whole Earth and be fruitful and multiply. Not that they would become united, and command against being physically fruitful.

	{1Co 7:7, 29 KJV} For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. ... But this I say, brethren, the time {is} short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; {Mat 19:12 KJV} For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from {their} mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive {it}, let him receive {it}. Become seedless, do not bear much fruit (children) and become a brick makers for the Gospel of the Kingdom of Jesus and Paul. Drink his blood (Lev 7:27) and eat his flesh (Lev 26:29) to become like the most high.
{Rom 1:15 LSB} In this way, for my part, I am eager to proclaim the gospel to you also who are in Rome.	Paul's eagerness to spread the message does not make it true. Muslims, Mormons, Catholics, Evangelistic Protestants are all equally eager to share their message - all of them being truth is impossible. None of them being truth is far more likely.
{Rom 1:16 LSB} For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.	If the Gospel is truth, why would you even profess this mantra of witchcraft? Why would you feel any shame about the message therein? Would the power of God for salvation come through murder of his "son"? Would it equally benefit the Jews and the outsiders?1. Who is it that says, "I am not ashamed"? {Psa 10:4-6 LSB} The wicked, in the haughtiness of his countenance, does not seek {Him}. All his thoughts are, "There is no God." His ways prosper at all times; Your judgments are on high, out of his sight; As for all his adversaries, he snorts at them. He says in his heart, "I will not be shaken; From generation to generation I will not be in adversity."The wicked. And when we get to Romans 3, we'll see how Paul's witchcraft has trapped you into being among the wicked. 2. We already established God's son is corporate Israel, not Jesus. But I have not shown why the murder of said son cannot do what Paul claims. {Exo 32:33 LSB} And Yahweh said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. Everyone dies in their own sin, no one can die in your place.3. Does God treat all people groups equally? {Deu 23:3 LSB} "No Ammonite or Moabite shall enter the assembly of Yahweh; even to the tenth generation, none of their {seed} shall ever enter the assembly of Yahweh, {Mal 1:2-3 LSB} "I have loved you," says Yahweh. But you say, "How have You loved us?" "{Was} not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares Yahweh. "Yet I have loved Jacob; but I have hated Esau, and I have set his mountains {to be} a desolation and his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness."

{Rom 1:17 LSB} For in it {the} righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "BUT THE RIGHTEOUS WILL LIVE BY FAITH."	The righteousness of God was the Torah he gave to Moses. {Deu 6:25 LSB} "And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, just as He commanded us. {Psa 119:142 LSB} Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, And Your law is truth. "From faith to faith" is a meaningless statement - it means nothing and he backs it up by taking a portion of a saying from the prophet Habakkuk, ignoring the surrounding context. Hab 2:1-5 I will stand on my guard post And station myself on the fortification; And I will keep watch to see what He will speak to me And how I may respond when I am reproved. Then Yahweh answered me and said, "Write down the vision And write {it} on tablets distinctly, That the one who reads it may run. "For the vision is yet for the appointed time; It pants toward its end, and it will not lie. Though it tarries, wait for it; For it will certainly come; it will not delay. "Behold, as for the proud one, His soul is not right within him; But the righteous will live by his fidelity. "And indeed, wine betrays the haughty man So that he does not stay at home. He enlarges his appetite like Sheol, And he is like death, never satisfied. He also gathers to himself all nations And assembles to himself all peoples. Are the righteous made righteous by their fidelity? Another way to phrase that portion;"The righteous will live by their own trustworthiness" They are already righteous by obeying Torah - but not the haughty man who trusts in the NEW WINE of the NEW TESTAMENT. HE DOES NOT STAY AT HOME, and what is Paul boasting of? THAT HE DOES NOT STAY AT HOME, HE HAS NO FAMILY, HE ENJOINS YOU to have no family as the TIME IS SHORT! Go and make all men brick makers, and spread his gospel! It's not a coincidence that pre-Masoretic Hebrew? SHEOL and SHAUL look exactly the same. So then who is "DEATH"? JESUS. {1Pe 2:21 LSB} For to this you have been called, since Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in His steps, What would this mean but to obey this new wine unto your OWN DEATH? That life is death and death is life? “For whosoever will save his life shall lose it, and whosoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it.”DEATH IS REWARDED in the New Testament through a PROMISE of ascending to heaven and becoming like the almighty God.

{Rom 1:18 LSB} For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness,	The mercy of God is also revealed in this. Did Paul read Jonah?God promised them 40 days before his wrath.{Jon 3:4 LSB} Then Jonah began to go into the city, one day's walk; and he called out and said, "Yet forty days and Nineveh will be overthrown."Yet, they repented changed their ways and we are told:{Jon 3:10 LSB} Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way, so God relented concerning the evil which He had spoken He would bring upon them. And He did not bring {it upon them}.I personally believe this section is one of Paul's confessions. This is a common thing among those who practice. They use revelation of the method to tell you what they are doing.
{Rom 1:19 LSB} because that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them.	This is a true statement, everyone being an image of God - we all inherently know of God. Does this make the claims of the NT truth?no.
{Rom 1:20 LSB} For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, both His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.	Would this invisible God use murder to justify the wicked? No.
{Rom 1:21 LSB} For even though they knew God, they did not glorify Him as God or give thanks, but they became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish heart was darkened.	“Foolish heart”{2Co 11:16 NKJV} I say again, let no one think me a fool. If otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, that I also may boast a little.Paul repeatedly admits to being the fool. We'll see this clearly in his mishandling of passages in Romans 3.
{Rom 1:22 LSB} Professing to be wise, they became fools,	{Gal 3:25 NKJV} But after faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. Calling the law a “tutor” that you are “no longer under” is just about the most foolish thing someone could say. And Paul does profess to be wise. {1Co 1:18-21 NKJV} For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, And bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent." Where {is} the wise? Where {is} the scribe? Where {is} the disputer of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. Paul admits here, his message is foolish and he is professing it to be wise. And he's insulting who? The scribes who record Torah, that they are merely disputers of this age whom his idol has declared foolish.

{Rom 1:23 LSB} and exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the likeness of corruptible man and of birds and four-footed animals and crawling creatures.	This is another one of Paul's confessions. 1. Jesus being a man (John 8:40, Acts 2:22, 1 Tim 2:5) is corruptible. And in fact this is even what Paul says of Jesus in Romans 8:3. That Jesus is a corruptible man, that he put on flesh and blood. 2. In Col 1:15 Paul tells us that Jesus is the "image of the invisible God" By Romans 1:23 and the way Christians talk about Jesus and pray to him? You are all condemned.
{Rom 1:24 LSB} Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, so that their bodies would be dishonored among them.	This explains so much of what has gone on in Christian circles, but we also see it in Pauline Christianity from the very beginning. {1Co 5:1-2 NKJV} It is actually reported {that there is} sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles--that a man has his father's wife! And you are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who has done this deed might be taken away from among you. That a man was sleeping with his Father's wife. If any of what Paul taught were true, how would this man not have power over the lusts of his "flesh" man? The only possible answer is Paul's words aren't true which is why Christians to this day struggle with sinfulness in their hearts.
{Rom 1:25 LSB} For they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.	1. We've already proven Jesus is the creature. 2. They worship and serve Jesus the creation, over the creator. Even by Jeremiah you are cursed. {Jer 17:5-6 LSB} Thus says Yahweh, "Cursed is the man who trusts in mankind And makes flesh his strength, And whose heart turns away from Yahweh. "And he will be like a juniper in the desert And will not see when prosperity comes, But will dwell in stony wastes in the wilderness, A land of salt {which is} not inhabited.

{Rom 1:26 LSB} For this reason God gave them over to dishonorable passions; for their females exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural,	Or again - as we see throughout Christian history? The Pastors abusing their position with the wives and single women, and with young men.
{Rom 1:27 LSB} and in the same way also the males abandoned the natural function of the female and burned in their desire toward one another, males with males committing indecent acts and receiving in their own persons the due penalty of their error.	What is the natural function of the female? To bear our seed, that through them we can be fruitful and multiply. {1Co 7:7 NKJV} For I wish that all men were even as I myself. But each one has his own gift from God, one in this manner and another in that. {Mat 19:12 NKJV} "For there are eunuchs who were born thus from {their} mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He who is able to accept {it}, let him accept {it}." Christians believe this to be solely about homosexuality - and sure it can be interpreted that way, that is absolutely one way to abandon the natural pattern YHWH God gave us with women. However, this is also clearly what Paul and Jesus are teaching. Don't reproduce, don't even live like you have a wife. Become a Eunuch for Jesus. (which would definitely be receiving the due penalty for your error.)
{Rom 1:28 LSB} And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them over to an unfit mind, to do those things which are not proper,	Do Christians acknowledge God the Father or the man they believe to be the Son? {Mal 1:6 NKJV} "A son honors {his} father, And a servant {his} master. If then I am the Father, Where {is} My honor? And if I {am} a Master, Where {is} My reverence? Says YHWH of hosts To you priests who despise My name. Yet you say, 'In what way have we despised Your name?' Would YHWH God share his glory even if Jesus was his son? {Isa 48:9-11 NKJV} "For My name's sake I will defer My anger, And {for} My praise I will restrain it from you, So that I do not cut you off. Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have tested you in the furnace of affliction. For My own sake, for My own sake, I will do {it}; For how should {My name} be profaned? And I will not give My glory to another. No, absolutely not. So they do not see fit to acknowledge God, but call the man Jesus their God and the "son" having greater glory than the Father.
{Rom 1:29 LSB} having been filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; {they are} gossips,	What is a common thread of warning in the NT, that appears to be a constant point of problem in the church and is to this day? {Gal 5:19-21 NKJV} Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told {you} in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. {1Co 6:9-10 NKJV} Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God. {Col 3:5-6 NKJV} Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, {Eph 5:3-6 NKJV} But fornication and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as is fitting for saints; neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor coarse jesting, which are not fitting, but rather giving of thanks. For this you know, that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. {Rev 22:12, 14-15 NKJV} "And behold, I am coming quickly, and My reward {is} with Me, to give to every one according to his work. ... Blessed {are} those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. But outside {are} dogs and sorcerers and sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and whoever loves and practices a lie. The New Testament has lots of problems - but it clearly wasn't teaching total lawlessness as the Church does today. In fact - when we get to Hebrews and 2 Peter we'll see just how high of a standard the NT actually has compared to Christianity. These also reveal something that every Christian misses. When you remove the source of light (Isaiah 8:20) and truth (Psalm 119:142) you will never find righteousness. That's why every NT letter is repeatedly warning them to change their ways. They remained like little children as Jesus commands. (a curse)

{Rom 1:30 LSB} slanderers, haters of God, violent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,	What is more evil than drinking blood and saying murder justifies the wicked? Saying God became a man, came out of a woman, and consumed her milk? That said woman saw the creator naked while changing his poop diaper?

{Rom 1:31 LSB} without understanding, untrustworthy, unloving, unmerciful;	What is the source of wisdom and understanding? Torah - Psalm 19:7-8 Most of you have completely cut that off, and even those of you that strive to obey it, as long as you let the blood of Jesus remain on your hands it doesn't matter how righteously you uphold the rest of it. {Isa 1:11-15 NKJV} "To what purpose {is} the multitude of your sacrifices to Me?" Says the LORD. "I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams And the fat of fed cattle. I do not delight in the blood of bulls, Or of lambs or goats. "When you come to appear before Me, Who has required this from your hand, To trample My courts? Bring no more futile sacrifices; Incense is an abomination to Me. The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and the calling of assemblies--I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting. Your New Moons and your appointed feasts My soul hates; They are a trouble to Me, I am weary of bearing {them}. When you spread out your hands, I will hide My eyes from you; Even though you make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood. What purpose does the sacrifice of Jesus do (Which breaks Torah) when you worship a man instead of God?
{Rom 1:32 LSB} and although they know the righteous requirement of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, they not only do the same, but also give hearty approval to those who practice {them}.	This is the same bogus claim that new agers make, that we all inherently know right from wrong. Totally and utterly false. {Pro 22:6 NKJV} Train up a child in the way he should go, And when he is old he will not depart from it. Why would you need to TRAIN UP A CHILD if they all knew inherently what was right and what was wrong? {Jer 4:22 NKJV} "For My people {are} foolish, They have not known Me. They {are} silly children, And they have no understanding. They {are} wise to do evil, But to do good they have no knowledge." This is why when Jesus says, "be like a child" he is cursing you with a lack of understanding - no wisdom, no knowledge just feelings.
{Rom 2:1 LSB} Therefore you are without excuse, O man, everyone who passes judgment, for in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.	"You who judge practice the same things" What? This is utter foolishness and one of Paul's straw men. This is why Christians believe they can't live righteously. If you are sinning, stop doing it. {Isa 55:6-7 LSB} Seek Yahweh while He may be found; Call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way And the unrighteous man his thoughts; And let him return to Yahweh, And He will have compassion on him, And to our God, For He will abundantly pardon. But you believe the witchcraft of Paul that once you sin, even though you've stopped and God has pardoned you - that you now can no longer judge another of their sin? Utter foolishness.

{Rom 2:2 LSB} And we know that the judgment of God rightly falls upon those who practice such things.	{Pro 6:23 LSB} For the commandment is a lamp and the law is light; And reproofs for discipline are the way of life
{Rom 2:3 LSB} But do you presume this, O man--who passes judgment on those who practice such things and does the same--that you will escape the judgment of God?	Does Paul presume we're all like King David, committing adultery and murder and yet being ruler, judging others in such a position? Also this isn't how Torah works, and if Torah doesn't work that way - would God's judgement?Any sin requires two or three witnesses to step forward to the judge. The Judge then has discretion. He can show mercy, where it is not deserved or he can weigh the evidence and determine the person is guilty. Would God judge more harshly than man? If we look at David again - he committed adultery and murder, two sins that have no atonement possible. There is no sacrifice or offering to atone for those sins. Not even Jesus' blood can atone for that sin, if it could atone for any sin. What does David say in his Psalm of repentance?{Psa 51:16-17 LSB} For You do not delight in sacrifice, otherwise I would give it; You are not pleased with burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; A broken and a contrite heart, O God, You will not despise.David wasn't forgiven of sins without atonement by putting his trust in the murder of Jesus, or believing God became a man. What about the Gentiles?
{Rom 2:4 LSB} Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?	If the kindness of God leads to repentance - why does one need Jesus?
{Rom 2:5 LSB} But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,	How can a man know the state of another man's heart? He can't. {Jer 17:9-10 LSB} "The heart is more deceitful than all else And is desperately sick; Who can know it? "I, Yahweh, search the heart; I test the inmost being, Even to give to each man according to his ways, According to the fruit of his deeds.And in fact this is why God doesn't even judge by the fickleness of our heart, but gives to each man according to the fruit of his deeds. Which Paul then says...
{Rom 2:6 LSB} who WILL REPAY TO EACH ACCORDING TO HIS WORKS:	If God repays according to our works, how can our works not matter? And in fact in the next passage he says everlasting life comes by what?
{Rom 2:7 LSB} to those who by perseverance in doing good seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life;	To those who persevere in doing good - they will receive honor, immortality and eternal life. What's strange here is so far, there is no argument for why then one would need Jesus. If God judges by our works, and not the fickleness of our heart - and eternal life according to Paul here is merited by those doing good?Then the whole Christian faith makes no sense does it?

{Rom 2:8 LSB} but to those who are selfishly ambitious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, wrath and anger.	So wrath comes to those who:1. Do not obey the truth. (Psalm 119:142)2. Obey unrighteousness. (Dt 6:25)This is why there are so many Christian denominations. Paul goes back and forth between these views.
{Rom 2:9 LSB} {There will be} affliction and turmoil for every soul of man who works out evil, of the Jew first and also of the Greek,	As I was pointing to earlier - why were the Gentile Ninevites saved?Because they turned from their evil ways, and God judged their works as righteous. Affliction comes to those who ignore God's commands. (Dt 28) But this again doesn't match what Paul says in other letters. That affliction will come to all Christians.{1Th 3:3-4 LSB} so that no one would be shaken by these afflictions, for you yourselves know that we have been destined for this. For indeed when we were with you, we {kept} telling you in advance that we were going to suffer affliction, just as it happened and as you know.This can only mean by Paul's own confession that the reason for Christian affliction is they are doing what is evil.
{Rom 2:10 LSB} but glory and honor and peace to everyone who works good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.	This has got to be one of the most ignored verses in Pauline writings. But it also contradicts statements Paul makes in this epistle. Paul is the double-minded man James warned you about.
{Rom 2:11 LSB} For there is no partiality with God.	This sounds egalitarian, Greek - is it a truth statement by what the law and the Prophets tell us?1. It depends, in terms of the rich and the poor, the stranger and the native born? Absolutely.{Exo 23:3 LSB} nor shall you be partial to a poor man in his case. What's interesting is NT theology _IS_ partial to being poor. Jesus tells the rich man to sell everything, and Paul boasts of his own poverty, relying on the kindness of those he's gifting his Gospel to.{Exo 12:49 LSB} "The same law shall apply to the native as to the sojourner who sojourns among you."2. But if we are talking about the sentiment YHWH has toward his people and rebellious nations?Absolutely not. {Deu 23:2-4 LSB} "No one of illegitimate birth shall enter the assembly of Yahweh; even to the tenth generation, none of his {seed} shall enter the assembly of Yahweh. "No Ammonite or Moabite shall enter the assembly of Yahweh; even to the tenth generation, none of their {seed} shall ever enter the assembly of Yahweh, because they did not meet you with food and water on the way when you came out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.{Mal 1:2-4 LSB} "I have loved you," says Yahweh. But you say, "How have You loved us?" "{Was} not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares Yahweh. "Yet I have loved Jacob; but I have hated

	Esau, and I have set his mountains {to be} a desolation and his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness." Though Edom says, "We have been demolished, but we will return and build up the waste places"; thus says Yahweh of hosts, "They may build, but I will pull down; and {men} will call them a territory of wickedness, and the people toward whom Yahweh is indignant forever."
{Rom 2:12 LSB} For all who have sinned without the Law will also perish without the Law, and all who have sinned under the Law will be judged by the Law.	All will perish, absolutely - the question is what happens after death? The Hellenized Jews adopted what is ultimately Egyptian theology about the resurrection of the dead. This is utterly absent from pre-exilic writings. {2Sa 12:21-23 LSB} Then his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept; but when the child died, you arose and ate food." Then he said, "While the child was {still} alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who knows, Yahweh may be gracious to me, that the child may live.' "But now he has died; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me." {Ecc 9:5 LSB} For the living know they will die; but the dead do not know anything, nor have they any longer a reward, for the memory of them is forgotten. {Psa 6:5 LSB} For there is no remembrance of You in death; In Sheol who will give You thanks? {Psa 88:10-11 LSB} Will You do wonders for the dead? Will the departed spirits rise {and} praise You? Selah. Will Your lovingkindness be recounted in the grave, Your faithfulness in Abaddon? {Isa 26:14 LSB} The dead will not live; the departed spirits will not rise; Therefore You have visited and destroyed them, And You have made all remembrance of them perish. There is a clear pattern here in the pre-exilic writings. They did not believe in resurrection. Death was final - then the post exilic, Babylonian influence crept in. Satan emerged along with the resurrection of the dead.
{Rom 2:13 LSB} For {it is} not the hearers of the Law {who} are just before God, but the doers of the Law will be justified.	This starts a series of passages that I used heavily when still Messianic and in the lie of Christianity. But how can this statement be true when just a chapter later Paul says: {Rom 3:27-28 LSB} Where then is boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the Law. And in Galatians: {Gal 5:4 LSB} You have been severed from Christ, you who are being justified by law; you have fallen from grace!What then is Paul's goal here? I believe given what comes next his statement is that no one can truly live by the law, and be obedient to it. That's why he ends chapter 3 with the lie that no one is justified by the law.

{Rom 2:14 LSB} For when Gentiles who do not have the Law naturally do the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law to themselves,	But do they NATURALLY do this? We discussed this numerous times before. Paul's presupposition here is that the renewed covenant promised for Israel and Judah has already happened - that the law of God is written to every man's heart, that we all know YHWH and do what is right.But this is impossible - remember the confession of Paul?{1Co 5:1 LSB} It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and sexual immorality of such a kind as does not exist even among the Gentiles, that someone has his father's wife.This is a man who was baptized into Jesus, "born again" yet even he didn't know what he was doing was wrong. Which is also debunked in Acts, when they Gentiles were coming in...{Act 15:19-21 LSB} "Therefore I judge that we do not trouble those who are turning to God from among the Gentiles, but that we write to them that they abstain from things contaminated by idols and from sexual immorality and from what is strangled and from blood. "For from ancient generations, Moses has those who preach him in every city, since he is read in the synagogues every Sabbath."Why would James have to set this as the standard of doctrine if they already have the law written within them, and do the things of the law without having the law?They can't - and this is part of why I don't believe Paul's point is that they will, he's setting a point that it's not possible.
{Rom 2:15 LSB} in that they demonstrate the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them,	This sounds beautiful and pro-Torah. I remember using it against lawless Christians. The thing is if the law was written on anyone's heart why would I have to?This is a universal promise of the renewed covenant. (Which is why it didn't happen under Jesus.){Jer 31:31-34 LSB} "Behold, days are coming," declares Yahweh, "when I will cut a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah, not like the covenant which I cut with their fathers in the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, My covenant which they broke, but I was a husband to them," declares Yahweh. "But this is the covenant which I will cut with the house of Israel after those days," declares Yahweh: "I will put My law within them, and on their heart I will write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. "And they will not teach again, each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying, 'Know Yahweh,' for they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them," declares Yahweh, "for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more."1. The law is moved from being external to internal (that is the difference)2. All other Elohim will vanish, only YHWH will be worshiped and you won't have to teach about YHWH or the Torah.

{Rom 2:16 LSB} on the day when, according to my gospel, God will judge the secrets of men through Christ Jesus.	According to Paul's "evangelion" which in the Tanak is "Good News" but translated to Luther's "GOSPEL" in your New Testament to support traditions of men - according to that, God will judge the secrets of men through Christ Jesus. (again using anointing as a title of Jesus.)Does any Prophet of YHWH declare this?{Amo 3:7 LSB} Surely Lord Yahweh does nothing Unless He reveals His secret counsel To His slaves the prophets.That is important - not finding and proving it from Paul. Can you find this from any Prophet prior to the New Testament? That Jesus will judge men?
{Rom 2:17 LSB} But if you bear the name "Jew" and rely upon the Law and boast in God,	This starts Paul's antisemitic rant - 1. Who would call themselves a Jew besides a Jew? (Paul reveals the answer to that) 2. Who would rely upon the law and boast in God?{Deu 32:3 LSB} "For I proclaim the name of Yahweh; Ascribe greatness to our God!{Deu 30:9-10 LSB} "Then Yahweh your God will prosper you abundantly in all the work of your hand, in the offspring of your body and in the offspring of your cattle and in the produce of your ground, for Yahweh will return to rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers, when you listen to the voice of Yahweh your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, when you return to Yahweh your God with all your heart and soul.
{Rom 2:18 LSB} and know {His} will and approve the things that are essential, being instructed out of the Law,	Indeed - proving the law is not yet written to anyone's heart. They had to be instructed in the law of God. They approve the things that are essential.Are these bad things?
{Rom 2:19 LSB} and are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,	Why would they be confident in that? {Pro 6:23 LSB} For the commandment is a lamp and the law is light; And reproofs for discipline are the way of life{Isa 8:20 LSB} To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because they have no dawn.
{Rom 2:20 LSB} a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and of the truth,	Isn't correction the entire purpose of the law? {Lev 19:17 LSB} 'You shall not hate your brother in your heart; you may surely reprove your neighbor, and so not bear sin because of him.And those who refuse correction BY THE LAW, will be FOREVER cursed by their rebellion?{Deu 29:18-21 LSB} lest there be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from Yahweh our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there be among you a root bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood. "And it will be when he hears the words of this curse, that he will bless himself in his heart, saying, 'I have peace though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart in order to sweep away the watered {land} with the dry.' "Yahweh shall not be willing to pardon him, but rather the anger of Yahweh and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse which is written in this book will rest on him, and Yahweh will blot out his name from under heaven. "Then Yahweh will separate him out for adversity from all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant which are written in this book of the law.

{Rom 2:21 LSB} you, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that one shall not steal, do you steal?	This verse starts Paul's transition from the law being a guide to being a "pedagogue" as he claims in the Torah that accuses us all of being sinners. Now if a man was teaching someone not to steal, yet he himself steals? He absolutely is a hypocrite. Why would Paul make such an accusation? {2Co 11:8 LSB} I robbed other churches by taking wages {from them} to minister to you. Jesus himself is also a hypocrite in this regard. He tells us Moses is insufficient, (do not murder) and his new law is required (Do not be angry, call a man a fool) (Matt 5:21-22) He then calls the Pharisees blind fools. (Matt 23:17)
{Rom 2:22 LSB} You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?	Are all men adulterers? Are all men idolaters? Didn't James warn them to not go near idols? Yet Paul says: {1Co 8:4 LSB} Therefore, concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one. And already admitted in 2 Co 11:8 that he was robbing them.
{Rom 2:23 LSB} You who boast in the Law, through your transgression of the Law, do you dishonor God?	Who would boast in the law as a transgressor of it? That goes back to the warning in Dt 29, that someone suffers the curses of affliction for their disobedience and then boasts of their obedience to the law and being blessed, having peace in their hearts.
{Rom 2:24 NKJV} For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," as it is written.	Paul's admonition, "as it is written" is used so often that Christians just blanketly accept it - just read over it and don't check his sources. Is that how it is written? Was the context of that matching Paul's pretext? Your Bible will usually point to two sources for this passage. Isaiah 52:5 and Ezekiel 36:22 {Isa 52:3-5 LSB} For thus says Yahweh, "You were sold for nothing, and you will be redeemed without money." For thus says Lord Yahweh, "My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there;

	then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. "So now, what do I have here," declares Yahweh, "since My people have been taken away for nothing?" Yahweh declares, "Those who rule over them howl, and My name is continually blasphemed all day long. The first is about the exile (as is Isaiah 53 the very next chapter) and tells us the Gentiles are blaspheming the name of God all day long - not the people held captive. {Eze 36:19-22 LSB} "Also I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the lands. According to their ways and their deeds I judged them. "Then they came to the nations to which they came. And they profaned My holy name because it was said of them, 'These are the people of Yahweh; yet they have come out of His land.' "But I had concern for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went. "Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'Thus says Lord Yahweh, "It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for My holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, to which you have come. The second one matches better - but they weren't told, "Turn to Jesus" they were told to turn back to the Law and to YHWH alone. That they went out among the nations not upholding the law, (which was Paul's claim that they were) but were breaking it.
{Rom 2:25 NKJV} For circumcision is indeed profitable if you keep the law; but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.	1. Circumcision could never become uncircumcision. This is physically impossible. 2. If you break the law of God, absolutely you're not going to be saved by circumcision. Israel wasn't in the past, why would they be today?
{Rom 2:26 NKJV} Therefore, if an uncircumcised man keeps the righteous requirements of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?	This is why Christians have this erroneous idea of "righteous requirements" of the law versus "ceremonial requirements" - but this is a view absent from the law and the Prophets. Circumcision is a command of YHWH to Moses. It is in the written Torah. {Exo 12:48-49 LSB} "But if a sojourner sojourns with you and celebrates the Passover to Yahweh, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near to celebrate it; and he shall be like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat of it. "The same law shall apply to the native as to the sojourner who sojourns among you." And he applies it equally to the foreigner and the natural born. The Prophets do the same thing. {Eze 44:7-9 LSB} when you brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to profane it, {even} My house, when you brought near My food, the fat and the blood. So they made

	My covenant void--{this} in addition to all your abominations. "And you have not kept the responsibility of My holy things yourselves, but you have set {foreigners} as keepers of the responsibility {given by} Me for My sanctuary." 'Thus says Lord Yahweh, "No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the sons of Israel, shall enter My sanctuary. Ezekiel says one of the ways the blasphemed God is by bringing in uncircumcised men to the holy sanctuary. I find it very interesting Paul is out there teaching this and then gets accused of doing what?{Act 21:28-29 LSB} crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches to everyone everywhere against our people and the Law and this place; and besides, he has even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple. You know Paul never addressed this charge? In the first trial, seeing that there were Saducees and Pharisees and knowing they disagree on the resurrection, said he was arrested for preaching the resurrection - not on charges of bringing an uncircumcised man into the sanctuary. Isaiah also says of the new age to come?{Isa 52:1 LSB} Awake, awake, Clothe yourself in your strength, O Zion; Clothe yourself in your glorious garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city; For the uncircumcised and the unclean Will no longer come into you. The uncircumcised won't even enter the city, let alone the sanctuary.
{Rom 2:27 NKJV} And will not the physically uncircumcised, if he fulfills the law, judge you who, {even} with {your} written {code} and circumcision, {are} a transgressor of the law?	Since circumcision is part of the law, how then could he be "fulfilling the law"?
{Rom 2:28-29 NKJV} For he is not a Jew who {is one} outwardly, nor {is} circumcision that which {is} outward in the flesh; but {he is} a Jew who {is one} inwardly; and circumcision {is that} of the heart, in the Spirit, not in the letter; whose praise {is} not from men but from God.	I'm placing these two together as it is absolutely a concept that I believe needs to be discussed thoroughly. What determines if someone is of Judah or of Israel? Is it merely obedience to the law, and could obedience to the law forsake commandments? Paul's whole argument prior to this is that if you break one, you break them all. But then places circumcision outside the "righteous requirements" of the law, nullifying the need to obey it. Furthermore, it is NOT even circumcision that determines if you are of Judah or of Israel. It is a question of your Father. Is your Father of Judah? Then you are of Judah. And as we saw from the passage above from Ezekiel? No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, of all the foreigners who are among the sons of Israel, shall enter My sanctuary.

	It is of Spirit AND flesh. What Paul means by “not in the letter” is one of many of his stabs at the written Torah. That obeying the written Torah receives praise from men, not from God. I also believe this is why the writer of Revelation states: {Rev 3:9 NKJV} "Indeed I will make {those} of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie--indeed I will make them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. Is clearly about Paul and his fake Jews - those who declare they are Jews spiritually but are not.
{Rom 3:1 NKJV} What advantage then has the Jew, or what {is} the profit of circumcision?	Paul is setting up his straw man here, the profit of a Jew is being chosen by God. But really this promise is for all of Israel not a single tribe.
{Rom 3:2 NKJV} Much in every way! Chiefly because to them were committed the oracles of God.	The “oracles of God” is a strange way to view Torah. Look into what Paul was saying in the Greek.
{Rom 3:3 NKJV} For what if some did not believe? Will their unbelief make the faithfulness of God without effect?	“Did not believe”? Didn’t Paul just tell us: {Rom 2:14 LSB} For when Gentiles who do not have the Law naturally do the things of the Law, these, not having the Law, are a law to themselves, So what matters to Paul is that you don’t pay attention to what he is saying.
{Rom 3:4 NKJV} Certainly not! Indeed, let God be true but every man a liar. As it is written: "That You may be justified in Your words, And may overcome when You are judged."	Here we go again, “as it is written” Why would you repeat this mantra? “Let God be true and every man a liar” Where would Paul get such philosophy from? If every man is a liar, why would you trust the words of Paul? {Tit 1:12-13 LSB} One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." This testimony is true. For this reason reprove them severely so that they may be sound in the faith, This was the philosophy of the Greeks. If the Cretan writing that is a liar and that statement is true, wouldn’t that make the writer of that statement a liar and the statement false? This is the sort of mind games these philosophers loved playing. Furthermore: {Psa 116:11 NKJV} I said in my haste, "All men {are} liars." Now this is an interesting thing, “in my haste I said, “all men are liars”.” Would you view this as a positive thing to repeat? Now let’s get to the “as it is written”. {Psa 51:3-4 LSB} For I know my transgressions, And my sin is ever before me. Against You, You only, I have sinned {And} done what is evil in Your sight, So that You are justified when You speak And pure when You judge. I don't even know how Paul pulled out what he did from this psalm of repentance. David was speaking of YHWH righteousness in judging him, that he is pure. Paul's interpretation is that his words are justified (which we'll get to in Romans 4) and that he may overcome judgement by his words. It's such an inverted interpretation of what is actually being stated by David. But I know what Christians will do - "Paul is quoting from the Septuagint!" Yes, likely he was. "Against thee only have I sinned, and done evil before thee: that thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." However - this translation of the source text makes absolutely zero sense. It is God who is judging why would God be the judged one and "overcome" anything here? It is an abysmal translation of the narrative and source text. To prove the Masoretic isn't corrupted - here is the contemporary Dead Sea Scrolls version: Ps 51:4 Against you, and you only, I have sinned, and done that which is evil in your sight; that you may be proved right when you speak, and justified when you judge. The Greek translation here is just abysmal.

{Rom 3:5 NKJV} But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? {Is} God unjust who inflicts wrath? (I speak as a man.)	Is it our unrighteousness that demonstrates God's righteousness? {Deu 6:25 LSB} "And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, just as He commanded us. No, it is our righteousness that demonstrates our righteousness. Of course God is just to deliver his wrath to the unrepentant who declare peace in their heart. This is a straw man argument from Paul.
{Rom 3:6 NKJV} Certainly not! For then how will God judge the world?	Will God judge the world again, the way he did during the flood? This idea comes from the apocalyptic Hellenized writings before Christianity came on the scene. But there's no evidence of this in the pre-exilic writings, in the law and the Prophets. {Gen 8:20-22 NKJV} Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the LORD smelled a soothing aroma. Then the LORD said in His heart, "I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, although the imagination of man's heart {is} evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done. "While the earth remains, Seedtime and harvest, Cold and heat, Winter and summer, And day and night Shall not cease." {Isa 54:9 NKJV} "For this {is} like the waters of Noah to Me;

	For as I have sworn That the waters of Noah would no longer cover the earth, So have I sworn That I would not be angry with you, nor rebuke you. What we see instead is mercy over the wicked, despite them being wicked.
{Rom 3:7 NKJV} For if the truth of God has increased through my lie to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner?	This is where Paul again with revelation of the method, says the quiet part out loud. That somehow God's truth is increased through Paul's lie. He admits to being a liar, and then questions why he's being judged a sinner. Again a straw man - if he's a sinner, he's a sinner. It has zero to do with God's truth, but has everything to do with his lie.
{Rom 3:8 NKJV} And {why} not {say}, "Let us do evil that good may come"?--as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say. Their condemnation is just.	Now this is an interesting bit of lost history - it is very likely the Ebionites who despised Paul were the ones accusing him of teaching this. But did you know your New Testament captures witnesses against Paul? {Jde 1:4 LSB} For certain persons have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. Who was the one who snuck into the camp turning the grace of God into sensuality? That could only be Paul - but Jude goes further and uses this parable of Balaam. {Jde 1:11 LSB} Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and for pay they have poured themselves into the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah. For pay they have poured themselves into the error of Balaam. Remember what stopped Balaam? {Act 16:6 NKJV} Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia. {Num 22:22-23 LSB} But God was angry because he was going, so the angel of Yahweh took his stand in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two young men were with him. Then the donkey saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the way with his drawn sword in his hand, and the donkey turned off from the way and went into the field; so Balaam struck the donkey to turn it back into the way. This is also very similar to the tale we're given in Acts 9 that doesn't match Paul's own testimony to the Galatians in chapter 1. It is also interesting 2 Peter and Revelation use the same analogy of those pursuing money. Which is Paul's entire goal.

	{1Co 9:14 LSB} So also the Lord directed those who proclaim the gospel to get their living from the gospel.YHWH never directed this, and the Ebionites (whom are also wrong and we'll get into that with those Parallel Bible editions) certainly didn't agree with this. {Rev 2:14-15 LSB} 'But I have a few things against you, that you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who kept teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality. 'So you also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans.Nicolaitans = Pauline Christianity. To eat the things sacrificed to idols as if the idols are nothing. {1Co 8:4 LSB} Therefore, concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.{Rom 14:1-2 LSB} Now accept the one who is weak in faith, {but} not for {the purpose of} passing judgment on opinions. One person has faith that he may eat all things, but he who is weak eats vegetables {only}.And this one we'll get in more detail later on...
{Rom 3:9 NKJV} What then? Are we better {than they}? Not at all. For we have previously charged both Jews and Greeks that they are all under sin.	Paul here imputes all of mankind as being sinners. This is a lie, this is the big lie. He just said this is MY LIE for God's glory.{Gen 6:9 LSB} These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among {those in} his generations; Noah walked with God.Noah was righteous. {2Ki 18:6 LSB} So he clung to Yahweh; he did not turn away from following Him, but kept His commandments, which Yahweh had commanded Moses.Hezekiah was righteous, and by his righteousness was given more years of life.{Eze 14:12-14 LSB} Then the word of Yahweh came to me saying, "Son of man, if a country sins against Me by committing unfaithfulness, and I stretch out My hand against it, break its staff of bread, send famine against it, and cut off from it both man and beast, even {though} these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, by their {own} righteousness they could {only} deliver themselves," declares Lord Yahweh.Ezekiel declares that Noah, Daniel and Job will only deliver themselves by their own righteousness.So no, not all are under sin. And if you have sinned are you permanently considered a sinner now?No. {Isa 6:5-7 LSB} Then I said, "Woe is me, for I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, And I live among a people of unclean lips; For my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh of hosts." Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal in his hand, which he had taken from the altar with tongs. And he touched my mouth {with it} and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin is atoned for."His sin was atoned for WITHOUT SACRIFICE and WITHOUT JESUS. {Jon 3:10 LSB} Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way, so God relented concerning the evil which He had spoken He would bring upon them. And He did not bring {it upon them}.The Ninevites were saved by their own righteousness!

{Rom 3:10-12 NKJV} As it is written: "There is none righteous, no, not one; There is none who understands; There is none who seeks after God. They have all turned aside; They have together become unprofitable; There is none who does good, no, not one."	These passages should be super easy for someone who truly loves YHWH to see through. {Psa 14:1-4 LSB} For the choir director. Of David. The wicked fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They act corruptly, they commit abominable deeds; There is no one who does good. Yahweh looks down from heaven upon the sons of men To see if there is anyone who has insight, Anyone who seeks after God. They have all turned aside, altogether they have become worthless; There is no one who does good, not even one. Do all the workers of iniquity not know, Who eat up my people as they eat bread, {And} do not call upon Yahweh? First grouping here is from the Psalms - either 53 or 14 which mirror each other. The context isn't about all never doing righteous.It is about those who say in their heart, "There is no God". Christian bibles also point to Solomon:{Ecc 7:20 LSB} Indeed, there is not a righteous man on earth who {continually} does good and who never sins.This certainly isn't saying what Christians believe - but it is also an opinion of Solomon the most wicked king of Israel who caused the kingdom to be divided.But let's just take it at face value. Solomon is saying that righteous men are not perfect, that they sin. Did you know even the Messianic prophesies show a flawed Messiah who still makes atonement for unintentional sin? {Eze 45:22 NKJV} "And on that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull {for} a sin offering.THE PRINCE (MESSIAH) prepares an offering FOR HIS SIN.How would Jesus whom Christians to believe erroneously to be without sin have need to do this? Especially since the Pauline portions of the NT claim sacrificial law to be over?God does not expect man to be perfect. {Mic 6:6-8 NKJV} With what shall I come before the LORD,

	{And} bow myself before the High God? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, With calves a year old? Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, Ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn {for} my transgression, The fruit of my body {for} the sin of my soul? He has shown you, O man, what {is} good; And what does the LORD require of you But to do justly, To love mercy, And to walk humbly with your God?
{Rom 3:13 NKJV} "Their throat {is} an open tomb; With their tongues they have practiced deceit"; "The poison of asps {is} under their lips";	This couplet is from two additional Psalms, so all we have to do is what we did before. Does the context apply this universally of all mankind or not? {Psa 5:4-5 LSB} For You are not a God who delights in wickedness; Evil does not sojourn with You. The boastful shall not stand before Your eyes; You hate all workers of iniquity. The boastful shall not stand before YHWH, and he hates all workers of lawlessness. This is whom: {Psa 5:9-12 LSB} There is nothing reliable in their mouth; Their inward part is destruction {itself}. Their throat is an open grave; They flatter with their tongue. Hold them guilty, O God; By their own devices let them fall! In the abundance of their transgressions thrust them out, For they are rebellious against You. But let all who take refuge in You be glad, Let them ever sing for joy; And may You shelter them, That those who love Your name may exult in You. For it is You who blesses the righteous one, O Yahweh, You surround him with favor as with a large shield. There is nothing reliable in the mouth of those who delight in wickedness - this is not universal toward all mankind as Paul is trying to use it. But all who take refuge in YHWH (not Jesus) will be glad, sing for joy and be sheltered by him. They love his name (not Jesus) and are righteous (not wicked as Paul claims) {Psa 140:1-5 LSB} For the choir director. A Psalm of David. Rescue me, O Yahweh, from evil men; Guard me from violent men Who think up evil things in {their} hearts; They continually stir up wars. They sharpen their tongues as a serpent; Poison of an asp is under their lips. Selah. Keep me, O Yahweh, from the hands of the wicked; Guard me from violent men Who give thought to trip up my steps. The proud have hidden a trap for me, and cords; They have spread a net by the wayside; They have set snares for me. Selah. The latter quote is the same. Not all of mankind has tongues of asps. Only the wicked and violent men do.
{Rom 3:14 NKJV} "Whose mouth {is} full of cursing and	Psalm 10 from where this is from is quite interesting, as bitterness."	many of the statements and allusions sound like Christianity. {Psa 10:2 LSB} In {his} lofty pride the wicked hotly pursues the afflicted; Let them be caught in the thoughts which they have devised.This is again about the wicked, the wicked are the ones whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. {Gal 1:9 LSB} As we have said before, so I say again now, if any man is proclaiming to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let him be accursed!Which is what Paul's mouth appears to be full of.

{Rom 3:15-17 NKJV} "Their feet {are} swift to shed blood; Destruction and misery {are} in their ways; And the way of peace they have not known."	How about this? Does this apply universally of all mankind? {Isa 59:9, 13 LSB} Therefore justice is far from us, And righteousness does not overtake us; We hope for light, but behold, darkness, For brightness, but we walk in thick darkness. ... Transgressing and denying Yahweh, And turning back from our God, Speaking oppression and revolt, Conceiving {in} and uttering from the heart lying words.No. It was a lamentation of the Prophet toward Israel whom had been exiled for her sin. But there was still hope WITHOUT JESUS. {Isa 59:20 LSB} "A Redeemer will come to Zion, And to those who turn from transgression in Jacob," declares Yahweh.TO THOSE WHO TURN from their sin, he WILL DELIVER THEM.Paul of course misuses this passage as well later in Romans.
{Rom 3:18 NKJV} "There is no fear of God before their eyes."	Who has no fear of God before their eyes?ALL people - or a specific group of people? {Psa 36:1 LSB} For the choir director. Of the servant of Yahweh, of David. Transgression declares to the ungodly within his heart; There is no dread of God before his eyes.It applies solely to the ungodly man, the man not pursuing God - the man who hears the curses of disobedience and declares peace in his heart. {Psa 36:2 LSB} For it flatters him in his eyes For one to discover his iniquity {and} hate {it}.You know how many times I was in the church system and Christians would boast of sinning every day?Christianity is a plague of wickedness on the world.
{Rom 3:19 NKJV} Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become	This is Paul's conclusion after his repeated misuse of Psalms and Proverbs and Ecclesiastes to support his pretext that the law just exists to accuse us all of being guilty before God.	under sin. That all the world may become guilty before God. Is that the goal of the law?? The Psalms, the VERY FIRST ONE also says: {Psa 1:1-3 LSB} How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the way of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers! But his delight is in the law of Yahweh, And in His law he meditates day and night. And he will be like a tree {firmly} planted by streams of water, Which yields its fruit in its season And its leaf does not wither; And in whatever he does, he prospers. Paul heavily relies upon people not educating themselves on what God actually says. No Prophet of YHWH declares the whole world guilty before God. {Eze 18:19-21 LSB} "Yet you say, 'Why should the son not bear the punishment for the father's iniquity?' But the son has done justice and righteousness and has kept all My statutes and done them. He shall surely live. 'The soul who sins will die. The son will not bear the iniquity of the father, nor will the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous will be upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked will be upon himself. 'But if the wicked man turns from all his sins which he has done and keeps all My statutes and does justice and righteousness, he shall surely live; he shall not die. If you are wicked? You can turn from it and to YHWH alone and he will blot out your sin.

{Rom 3:20 NKJV} Therefore by the deeds of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for by the law {is} the knowledge of sin.	Paul again lays out his straw man argument. Does the law not justify? {Deu 6:25 LSB} "And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, just as He commanded us. Did God lie?
{Rom 3:21 NKJV} But now the righteousness of God apart from the law is revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets,	BUT NOW, means it WAS NOT REVEALED BEFOREHAND. Not by Moses, not by any prophets. {Amo 3:7 NKJV} Surely the Lord GOD does nothing, Unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets. {Deu 13:1-3 NKJV} "If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder, "and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us go after other gods'--which you have not known--'and let us serve them,' "you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. And as far as it being witnessed by the law and the Prophets? We've already debunked that, and will continue to do so as Paul grasps at misquotations, mistranslations and fabrications to prove his pretext, "HIS LIE" as he already admitted.

{Rom 3:22 NKJV} even the righteousness of God, through faith in Jesus Christ, to all and on all who believe. For there is no difference;	As Paul declares in Galatians something similar:{Gal 2:21 LSB} "I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness {comes} through the Law, then Christ died needlessly."But we know from the law:{Deu 6:25 LSB} "And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, just as He commanded us.Righteousness is through the law, and obedience to it. Since righteousness does come through the law, then Christ died needlessly.
{Rom 3:23 NKJV} for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,	Remember how I called these words witchcraft? How many Christians repeat this mantra and remain slaves to their sin?Not all have sinned, remember Hezekiah?{Isa 38:1-8 LSB} In those days Hezekiah became ill to the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, "Thus says Yahweh, 'Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live.'" Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh and said, "Remember now, O Yahweh, I beseech You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart and have done what is good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept greatly. Then the word of Yahweh came to Isaiah, saying, "Go and say to Hezekiah, 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of your father David, "I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears; behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. "And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city."' "Now this shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do this word that He has spoken: "Behold, I will cause the shadow on the stairway, which has gone down with the sun on the stairway of Ahaz, to go back ten steps." So the sun's {shadow} went back ten steps on the stairway on which it had gone down.Because of HIS OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS, YHWH granted him an additional 15 years of life. He also delivered the city from the hands of Assyria, defending it from them ALL BECAUSE OF HEZEKIAH'S RIGHTEOUSNESS! Even if Paul's lie here was true, would this mean the solution to the problem is accepting Jesus as your Savior and that he was murdered for your sin?NO!{Isa 55:6-7 LSB} Seek Yahweh while He may be found; Call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way And the unrighteous man his thoughts; And let him return to Yahweh, And He will have compassion on him, And to our God, For He will abundantly pardon.If you sin, seek YHWH, change your ways and your mind. God will abundantly pardon - WITHOUT JESUS.
{Rom 3:24 NKJV} being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,	Many of the passages Paul talks about this "free gift" - aka a BRIBE. Paul tickles your ear that you don't have to do anything to gain this “FREE GIFT” (remember I compared him to a used car salesman) just accept it and redemption is yours. In any other part of our life, most people are wise enough to reject such offers. But in spiritual matters, most people just accept the lie of Paul.

{Rom 3:25 NKJV} whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed,	How does murder for my sin demonstrate God's righteousness? That's perverse, that's not just it's a travesty of justice. Nowhere is this possible for someone to take my place. {Exo 32:33 LSB} And Yahweh said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. {Deu 24:16 LSB} "Fathers shall not be put to death for {their} sons, nor shall sons be put to death for {their} fathers; each shall be put to death for his own sin. {Jer 31:30 LSB} "But everyone will die for his own iniquity; each man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge. Secondly, how many times in this parallel Bible have I shown that we don't need Jesus to have our former sins passed over? Even in Jeremiah 3, after he divorced Israel for them sacrificing their own sons and daughters - what did YHWH tell them? {Jer 3:12-14 LSB} "Go and call out these words toward the north and say, 'Return, faithless Israel,' declares Yahweh; 'I will not look upon you in anger. For I am One of lovingkindness,' declares Yahweh; 'I will not be angry forever. 'Only acknowledge your iniquity, That you have transgressed against Yahweh your God And have scattered your ways {of harlotry} to the strangers under every green tree, And you have not listened to My voice,' declares Yahweh. 'Return, O faithless sons,' declares Yahweh; 'For I am a master to you, And I will take you one from a city and two from a family, And I will bring you to Zion.' Nowhere here do you see a prophesy of someone dying in their place, or taking their sin - for that they turn to misusing Isaiah 53 and misinterpreting statements within it through bad translation.
{Rom 3:26 NKJV} to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.	This is Paul's penultimate argument - that justification was never by being righteous, but was revealed at this time (2000 years ago) to be only through faith in Jesus. If this is true it makes every Prophet beforehand a liar.
{Rom 3:27 NKJV} Where {is} boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith.	Is there a “law of faith”? {Deu 18:20-22 LSB} 'But the prophet who speaks a word presumptuously in My name which I have not commanded him to speak, or which he speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die.' "Now you may say in your heart, 'How will we know the word which Yahweh has not spoken?' "When a prophet speaks in the name of Yahweh, if the thing does not come about or come true, that is the thing which Yahweh has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; you shall not be afraid of him."No.

{Rom 3:28 NKJV} Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law.	See how he sets up these straw men to support his faulty pretext? That because some were boasting in their circumcisions, it therefore nullifies the law?Utter foolishness. And man cannot be justified by faith alone. Even the New Testament states that in the Ebionite letter against Paul.{Jas 2:21-24 LSB} Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? You see that faith was working with his works, and as a result of the works, faith was perfected. And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "AND ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS COUNTED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS," and he was called the friend of God. You see that a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.This is why Luther wanted to burn the epistle of James.
{Rom 3:29 NKJV} Or {is He} the God of the Jews only? {Is He} not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also,	Nowhere does the Torah limit itself to only the "Jews" which again is one tribe. All of Israel has a covenant, not just the Jews. I'll be diving into that more as we go through the Tanakh books.Briefly here - We know the Ninevites pleased God by their works, not just their "faith". We know Namaan pleased God by his works (dipping himself seven times in the Jordan) not just by his trust of the words and believing in them.Why would this suddenly change?
{Rom 3:30 NKJV} since {there is} one God who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith.	Yes there is one God who justifies all, but not by whether or not they have "faith". Again I'll go to the NT to debunk Paul here.{Mat 21:28-32 LSB} "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.' "And he answered and said, 'I will not'; but afterward he regretted it and went. "And the man came to the second and said the same thing; and he answered and said, 'I {will}, sir'; but he did not go. "Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and prostitutes will get into the kingdom of God before you. "For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him; and you, seeing {this}, did not even regret afterward so as to believe him.The second son had plenty of faith - he confessed, "I WILL SIR" but DID NOT GO.And Jesus asked his disciples, which of the two will be doing the will of the Father?The one without works and faith, or the one with works but NO FAITH?THE FIRST, who HAD NO FAITH, HAD NO CONFESSION - yet DID WHAT WAS RIGHT.

{Rom 3:31 NKJV} Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.	This is another verse I constantly hear Messianics proof text to justify that Paul is not actually lawless. The truth is right there in plain sight. He believes that through your faith you establish the law, not by your actions and this is made clear as we go on through Romans.
{Rom 4:1 NKJV} What then shall we say that Abraham our father has found according to the flesh?	One of Paul's constant appeals is that of "flesh" (sarx) versus "spirit" (pneuma) this is very Greek thinking of mankind. Platonism views man as a divided being, and that our reality of flesh is a shadow of the true spiritual realities. In fact, Paul many times appeals to this language as does the author of Hebrews and John. Here we see Paul set up his next straw man argument, that Abraham couldn't have found this righteousness according to his "flesh" man.
{Rom 4:2 NKJV} For if Abraham was justified by works, he has {something} to boast about, but not before God.	One verse destroys Paul here.{Gen 26:5 LSB} because Abraham listened to My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws."Abraham listened to the voice of YHWH, and kept the statutes and laws. (Torah)Does this then mean Abraham has something to boast of?Of course not, this is Paul's false dichotomy, just because someone is justified by their works doesn't mean they would have something to boast of. Nor would a humble righteous man ever do something so vain.But Paul? He is constantly boasting.
{Rom 4:3 NKJV} For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."	This is based again on the poor Greek of this passage which in Hebrew says simply:15:6 וְהָאֱמִן בַּיהוָה וַיַּחְשְׁבֶהָ לוֹ חֶסֶד He (Abram) trusted YHWH He (Abram) reckoned Him (YHWH) justThis is what the verse is actually saying in Hebrew. YHWH just promised Abram to be a father of many nations, that his seed would outnumber the stars of heaven and the sand of the seashore. Abram trusted YHWH because he is not a man that he'd lie nor a son of man that he'd need to repent of his promise.Abram trusted YHWH, because of YHWH righteousness.
{Rom 4:4-5 NKJV} Now to him who works, the wages are not counted as grace but as debt. But to him who does not work but believes on Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness,	Now we come to Paul's conclusion from his erroneous interpretation of the prior passage. That because Abram (by his imagination) was justified by faith alone, this means that if Abram worked it would be counted as debt not grace.In two verses Paul condemns the righteous and justifies the wicked.{Pro 17:15 NKJV} He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, Both of them alike {are} an abomination to the LORD. {Eze 13:22 NKJV} "Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and you have strengthened the hands of the wicked, so that he does not turn from his wicked way to save his life. {Exo 23:7 NKJV} "Keep yourself far from a false matter; do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked.Three witnesses against Paul, and all three condemn him.

{Rom 4:6-8 NKJV} just as David also describes the blessedness of the man to whom God imputes righteousness apart from works: "Blessed {are those} whose lawless deeds are forgiven, And whose sins are covered; Blessed {is the} man to whom the LORD shall not impute sin."	Would David who says the law is perfect (Psalm 119:142) declare that man is declared righteous apart from works of the law?Paul is again trying to use the Psalms against Torah - this is an extremely destructive and blasphemous behavior, and he does it repeatedly. Let's go to the Psalm first.{Psa 32:1-2 LSB} Of David. A Maskil. How blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is covered! How blessed is the man whose iniquity Yahweh will not take into account, And in whose spirit there is no deceit!Notice Paul left out that last stanza of this verse?"In whose spirit there is no deceit" would make no sense when just a few verses earlier Paul was calling every man a liar. It also would make no sense to the pretext Paul is trying to frame, as someone who has no deceit is striving to live righteously. {Psa 32:3 LSB} When I kept silent {about my sin}, my bones wasted away Through my groaning all day long.David tried to cover up his sin, believing it would just be covered up. But it wasn't, and his body and soul was wasting away because of it. He wasn't justified by faith. {Psa 32:4 LSB} For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; My vitality was drained away as with the heat of summer. Selah.Christians today believe this is the work of Satan.{Psa 32:5 LSB} I acknowledged my sin to You, And my iniquity I did not cover up; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh;" And You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.This is the common formula in all of Tanakh - acknowledge it, forsake it and he will forgive your iniquity. Don't try to cover up your sin, with murder of an innocent man like David did and like Paul tries to do with the murder of Jesus. {Psa 32:6 LSB} Therefore, let every holy one pray to You at a time when {You} may be found; Surely in a flood of great waters they will not reach him. Who is holy? Those striving to guard and do the Torah. {Psa 32:7-8 LSB} You are my hiding place; You guard me from trouble; You surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah. I will give you insight and teach you in the way which you should go; I will counsel you with My eye upon you. If he's being taught the way to go (another allusion to Torah) how could he be forgiven APART from doing what is right by the Torah? {Psa 32:9-11 LSB} Do not be as the horse or as the mule which have no understanding, Whose harness are bit and bridle to control them, {Otherwise} they will not come near you. Many are the sorrows of the wicked, But he who trusts in Yahweh, lovingkindness shall surround him. Be glad in Yahweh and rejoice, you righteous ones; And shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart. Who is righteous, but he who obeys Torah? Trust in YHWH alone and do what is right is the clear message here, but Paul somehow manages to make it about his Gospel and his pretext.

{Rom 4:9 NKJV} {Does} this blessedness then {come} upon the circumcised {only}, or upon the uncircumcised also? For WE say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness.	Do you see Paul's confession here? WE SAY that Abraham was accounted righteous by his faith. Not that GOD SAYS - WE SAY. Paul is also setting up a straw man, between the circumcision and uncircumcision.
{Rom 4:10 NKJV} How then was it accounted? While he was circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised.	Now we have Paul's delivery built on his false interpretation of Genesis 15:6 and his straw man argument thusly that before Abraham was circumcised he was accounted righteous. The problem with Paul's argument is if you look at Abraham's life up to this point? Abram was righteous. The first time God made the promise to him was in Genesis 12, with a command. {Gen 12:1-3 NKJV} Now the LORD had said to Abram: "Get out of your country, From your family And from your father's house, To a land that I will show you. I will make you a great nation; I will bless you And make your name great; And you shall be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, And I will curse him who curses you; And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed." Did Abram doddle like Lot did, when the Angels came to pull him out of Sodom? No. YHWH ordered him to leave, and he obeyed. This alone would be a sign of righteousness, of obeying the voice of YHWH. {Gen 12:7 NKJV} Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." And there he built an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. Abram was a righteous man, this is what it tells us at the end of his life. Abram obeying the covenant of circumcision and having his name changed to Abraham AT THAT POINT (which Paul ignores) is why God made this promise. God knows the beginning from the end.{Gen 26:1-5 NKJV} There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, in Gerar. Then the LORD appeared to him and said: "Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land of which I shall tell you. "Dwell in this land, and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and your descendants I give all these lands, and I will perform the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. "And I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of heaven; I will give to your descendants all these lands; and in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed; "because Abraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws."

{Rom 4:11-12 NKJV} And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which {he had while still} uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are uncircumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also, and the father of circumcision to those who not only {are} of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father Abraham {had while still} uncircumcised.	Here we have Paul's over-emphasis of faith versus just obeying the voice of God. No righteousness is "imputed" without obedience, and Paul who loved to pull the Psalms against the Torah ignores the Psalm about Phinehas here, which tells us how God actually imputes a man righteous. {Psa 106:30-31 NKJV} Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, And the plague was stopped. And that was accounted to him for righteousness To all generations forevermore.This is a retelling of the account in Numbers when the Moabites drew away some of Israel to whore around with them. Phinehas stood up and killed the wicked man among them, which atoned for the sin of the land and by that deed?Phinehas was accounted righteous FOREVER.You see it was his deeds of righteousness and zealousness for YHWH that made him righteous, not just his trust or "faith" in YHWH.
{Rom 4:13 NKJV} For the promise that he would be the heir of the world {was} not to Abraham or to his seed through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.	Was it Paul? Genesis 26:5 states the exact opposite, and I'll reproduce it again here for convenience. {Gen 26:5 LSB} because Abraham listened to My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws."
{Rom 4:14 NKJV} For if those who are of the law {are} heirs, faith is made void and the promise made of no effect,	What Paul is setting up here is his complete antinomian views and this gets expanded in Romans 5. He is admitting the law is contrary to his message of faith.
{Rom 4:15 NKJV} because the law brings about wrath; for where there is no law {there is} no transgression.	The law only brings wrath if you say, "I will have peace in my heart" though you are afflicted and cursed. Then what does YHWH say?{Deu 29:20-25 LSB} "Yahweh shall not be willing to pardon him, but rather the anger of Yahweh and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse which is written in this book will rest on him, and Yahweh will blot out his name from under heaven. "Then Yahweh will separate him out for adversity from all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant which are written in this book of the law. "And the generation to come, your sons who rise up after you and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, shall see the plagues of the land and the diseases with which Yahweh has afflicted it, and they will say, 'All its land is brimstone and salt, a burning waste, unsown and nothing sprouting, and no grass grows in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which Yahweh overthrew in His anger and in His wrath.' "And all the nations will say, 'Why has Yahweh done thus to this land? Why this great burning anger?' "Then {men} will say, 'Because they forsook the covenant of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, which He cut with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt."And note Paul's straw man again here - "Where there is no law, there is no transgression" This is key to understanding Paul's entire theology, the law has to be nailed to the cross with Jesus to do away with transgression. It is Paul's final solution, kill the law with Jesus, you kill the transgression that was our guilt. This is how the early Church understood Paul as well, even outside of Marcion. Ignatius of Antioch, epistle to the Magnesians 110 AD: "For if we still live according to the Jewish law, we acknowledge that we have not received grace." If you strive to obey the law, you forsake Paul's grace message. And later on: "For were He to reward us according to our works, we should cease to be." This is why I call Christianity the root of all evil. If you live according to your works and your works are wicked? You deserve wrath. This religion has no justice for the righteous and no punishment for the wicked.

{Rom 4:16 NKJV} Therefore {it is} of faith that {it might be} according to grace, so that the promise might be sure to all the seed, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all	The "faith" of Abraham was to obey the voice of YHWH from the very beginning. Abraham wasn't under this spell of grace, that his deeds don't matter.
{Rom 4:17 NKJV} (as it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations") in the presence of Him whom he believed--God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did;	The "many nations" is in regard to the 12 tribes to come from Jacob. Not Gentiles not outsiders. It also had nothing to do with resurrection which is an Egyptian belief.
{Rom 4:18 NKJV} who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, "So shall your descendants be."	"So shall your descendants be" - {Gen 15:4-5 LSB} Then behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, "This one will not be your heir; but one who will come forth from your own body, he shall be your heir." And He brought him outside and said, "Now look toward the heavens, and number the stars, if you are able to number them." And He said to him, "So shall your seed be."{Deu 1:10 LSB} 'Yahweh your God has multiplied you, and behold, you are this day like the stars of heaven in number.Paul counted on ignorance.

{Rom 4:19 NKJV} And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb.	Abraham was not already dead, Paul is lying here. Sarah's womb could have been dead, but YHWH revived it. Isaac wasn't born of a spirit impregnating her, but through Abraham's own seed.
{Rom 4:20 NKJV} He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God,	Yes he gave glory to God - THROUGH OBEYING THE VOICE. When called to circumcise, he obeyed and did it.
{Rom 4:21 NKJV} and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform.	Oh we finally get to work - the problem is, this happened all the way back in Genesis 12. There was never a point where Abraham wasn't obeying God.
{Rom 4:22 NKJV} And therefore "it was accounted to him for righteousness."	Therefore Paul's straw man is true? No - Abram at that time trusted the promises of YHWH because of YHWH righteousness.
{Rom 4:23 NKJV} Now it was not written for his sake alone that it was imputed to him,	Paul just builds on logical fallacies, he keeps piling them on. Abram wasn't imputed righteous by his trust, we've already established this is a false interpretation from a bad translation.
{Rom 4:24 NKJV} but also for us. It shall be imputed to us who believe in Him who raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead,	Then we get the ultimate jump of logic here. That because Abram who trusted God was imputed righteous by his false interpretation, you will be imputed righteous through belief in the murder of Jesus. This is patently absurd, it is a false equivalency, begging the question - you name it Paul committed numerous logical fallacies with his argumentation here.
{Rom 4:25 NKJV} who was delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised because of our justification.	"Delivered up because of our offenses" False - {Deu 24:16 NKJV} "Fathers shall not be put to death for {their} children, nor shall children be put to death for {their} fathers; a person shall be put to death for his own sin." "Raised because of our justification" I'm not even sure how this would prove anything. Even if he was raised from the dead, why would that act justify you in your sin?Remember this?{Isa 38:18 NLT} For the dead cannot praise you; they cannot raise their voices in praise. Those who go down to the grave can no longer hope in your faithfulness. The pre-exilic Israelites and Jewish people did not believe in resurrection at all. This is a post-exilic belief from Babylon, which is also a fundamental belief of the Egyptians.

{Rom 5:1 NKJV} Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,	Here we have it, where Paul tries to curse you with the unforgivable sin in Dt 29. Declare peace in your heart, though you are wicked and cursed.
{Rom 5:2 NKJV} through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.	Through murder?? {Deu 27:25 NKJV} 'Cursed {is} the one who takes a bribe to slay an innocent person.' "And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'
{Rom 5:3 NKJV} And not only {that}, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance;	"We glory in tribulations" - remember, tribulations come to the wicked. This is the teachings of Lev 26 and Dt 28. I know the interlocutor will say, "What about Job?" Job is a post-exilic book, written by Jews who were continually afflicted to explain why God would punish the "righteous" - it is not of YHWH.
{Rom 5:4 NKJV} and perseverance, character; and character, hope.	If you persevere through your curses, you can still hope in the redemption of your soul through the murder of Jesus. But Jeremiah says:{Jer 17:5-6 LSB} Thus says Yahweh, "Cursed is the man who trusts in mankind And makes flesh his strength, And whose heart turns away from Yahweh. "And he will be like a juniper in the desert And will not see when prosperity comes, But will dwell in stony wastes in the wilderness, A land of salt {which is} not inhabited.
{Rom 5:5 NKJV} Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us.	What if this spirit Paul is under is not the set apart presence of YHWH but a lying spirit to test you? {1Ki 22:19-23 NKJV} Then {Micaiah} said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left. "And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner. "Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' "The LORD said to him, 'In what way?' So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade {him}, and also prevail. Go out and do so.' "Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

{Rom 5:6 NKJV} For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.	Paul's tantamount argument, that he was murdered for your sin, dying in your place. The ultimate travesty of justice. {Jer 31:30 LSB} "But everyone will die for his own iniquity; each man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge. No one can die in your place.
{Rom 5:7 NKJV} For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die.	One of the things about Paul is he will repeat the same lie over and over and over again. No one can die for another man, whether righteous or wicked. Everyone has to die for their own sin.
{Rom 5:8 NKJV} But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.	When Moses demonstrated his love for his brethren, saying:{Exo 32:30-32 LSB} Now it happened on the next day, that Moses said to the people, "You yourselves have committed a great sin; but now I am going up to Yahweh, perhaps I can make atonement for your sin." Then Moses returned to Yahweh and said, "Alas, this people has committed a great sin, and they have made gods of gold for themselves. "But now, if You will forgive their sin-- but if not, please blot me out from Your book which You have written!" And I do believe this is intentional - God is telling us that the innocent cannot die for the wicked. Moses at this point, before he hit the rock instead of speaking to it? He was still righteous. But God clearly tells him of this personal offering? {Exo 32:33-34 LSB} And Yahweh said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. "But now go, guide the people where I told you. Behold, My angel shall go before you; nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin." No one can die in their place or take their punishment. That would not be just, it would be merciless and unjust.
{Rom 5:9 NKJV} Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him.	Paul really triples and quadruples down on this idea as well. That justification can possibly come through the murdered Jesus is blasphemy of Torah.

	{Exo 23:7-8 LSB} "Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent or the righteous, for I will not justify the guilty. "And you shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the clear-sighted and subverts the cause of the just. {Deu 27:25 LSB} 'Cursed is he who takes a bribe to strike down innocent blood.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.' I am convinced that Paul's free gift is the bribe being talked about here.
{Rom 5:10 NKJV} For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.	The Son of God having been changed to Jesus by Paul: {Exo 4:22 NKJV} "Then you shall say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says the LORD: "Israel {is} My son, My firstborn. Cannot reconcile you to God through his murder. Who then shall be saved? {Jer 3:12-14 LSB} "Go and call out these words toward the north and say, 'Return, faithless Israel,' declares Yahweh; 'I will not look upon you in anger. For I am One of lovingkindness,' declares Yahweh; 'I will not be angry forever. 'Only acknowledge your iniquity, That you have transgressed against Yahweh your God And have scattered your ways {of harlotry} to the strangers under every green tree, And you have not listened to My voice,' declares Yahweh. 'Return, O faithless sons,' declares Yahweh; 'For I am a master to you, And I will take you one from a city and two from a family, And I will bring you to Zion.'
{Rom 5:11 NKJV} And not only {that}, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.	Can you be reconciled to God through sin? It's a sin to trust in the murder of an innocent man, it is a sin to change the Son of God from Israel to Jesus. It is definitely a sin to pretend to drink blood and eat his flesh. How can you possibly be reconciled through what God told Moses is sin?
{Rom 5:12 NKJV} Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned--	Here we get Paul's conclusion from earlier, we are all sinners - which I debunked above. However, he also tries to acquit all of mankind with Adam's sin. This is debunked in Genesis 4. {Gen 4:6-7 LSB} Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? "If you do well, will not {your countenance} be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is lying at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must rule over it." Cain could do what was right and in doing that, God would accept him the same way he accepted Abel. It wasn't about the blood, it was the quality of the offering. That Abel's heart wasn't in it. He brought the "fruit of the ground" meaning the rotten fruit, not the first fruit. Secondly - death didn't spread, we were created mortal beings. It wasn't a question of immortal beings being struck down and being made mortal. It was a question of mortal beings losing access to what would allow them to live beyond their years. We do not inherit Adam's sin, nor your own Father's sin. {Deu 24:16 LSB} "Fathers shall not be put to death for {their} sons, nor shall sons be put to death for {their} fathers; each shall be put to death for his own sin.

{Rom 5:13 NKJV} (For until the law sin was in the world, but sin is not imputed when there is no law.	Paul is repeating this lie that he made earlier - when was the law given? Paul answers that, at Sinai. Yet sin was imputed against the whole world through the flood. All but eight survived by YHWH mercy. {Gen 6:5 NKJV} Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man {was} great in the earth, and {that} every intent of the thoughts of his heart {was} only evil continually. How was sin imputed to them without a law being given? How could God judge the world as sinful, without them knowing it was sin?
{Rom 5:14 NKJV} Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of Adam, who is a type of Him who was to come.	According to Paul's worldview, death was given power because of Adam - but this is not what Genesis says. Man was created as a mortal being.
{Rom 5:15 NKJV} But the free gift {is} not like the offense. For if by the one man's offense many died, much more the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded to many.	Paul selling us the bribe again, accept the free gift of murder for your sin. It is much better than the false dichotomy of the death and sin you receive through Adam.
{Rom 5:16 NKJV} And the gift {is} not like {that which came} through the one who sinned. For the judgment {which came} from one {offense resulted} in condemnation, but the free gift {which came} from many offenses {resulted} in justification.	Are you judged for the sin of Adam or your own sin? How could anyone be justified through what God calls sin?

{Rom 5:17 NKJV} For if by the one man's offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.)	Notice that Paul is repeating himself here? This is what liars have to do. Death was always inevitable for man. We were made as mortal creatures. Righteousness cannot come through sin. {Isa 5:20-23 LSB} Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, Who substitute darkness for light and light for darkness, Who substitute bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes And understanding in their own sight! Woe to those who are mighty men in drinking wine And valiant men in mixing strong drink, Who declare the wicked righteous for a bribe, And remove the righteous standing of the ones who are righteous! What do Paulinists do because of these words? 1. They declare that no one is good, you can't do what's right. Thusly calling good evil. 2. They declare the murder of Jesus and drinking his blood (even if allegorical is evil) two things clearly laid out as sin by Torah - that these sinful evil things are in fact good. 3. They declare you righteous for the bribe of grace, and just like Dt 27:25 - you accept the blood of Jesus for your sin, sealing your fate among the wicked.
{Rom 5:18 NKJV} Therefore, as through one man's offense {judgment came} to all men, resulting in condemnation, even so through one Man's righteous act {the free gift came} to all men, resulting in justification of life.	Since we've already thoroughly established sin cannot be imputed from Father to son, or son to Father - we now need to debunk that righteousness can be imputed from the righteous to the wicked. {Eze 14:12-14 LSB} Then the word of Yahweh came to me saying, "Son of man, if a country sins against Me by committing unfaithfulness, and I stretch out My hand against it, break its staff of bread, send famine against it, and cut off from it both man and beast, even {though} these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, by their {own} righteousness they could {only} deliver themselves," declares Lord Yahweh.
{Rom 5:19 NKJV} For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so also by one Man's obedience many will be made righteous.	Paul again repeating himself as if stating a lie multiple times makes it truth.
{Rom 5:20-21 NKJV} Moreover the law entered that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more, so that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.	There's no way I could possibly see Paul as pro-Torah any longer. The law entered to make offense abound? I'm sorry Paul, you've just blasphemed the creator. {Deu 30:15-18 LSB} "See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, and death and calamity; in that I am commanding you today to love Yahweh your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, that you may live and multiply, and that Yahweh your God may bless you in the land where you are entering to possess it. "But if your heart turns away and you will not listen, but are drawn away and worship other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall surely perish. You will not prolong {your} days in the land where you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess it. The purpose or "goal" of the law is life - that you obey it, and find life. If you disobey it you will find death. "But where sin abounded, grace abounded more" Which is why Luther says, "Go and sin boldly" and why Jude says: {Jde 1:4 LSB} For certain persons have crept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand marked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ. "Grace might reign through righteousness" Righteousness comes through obeying the law, life comes through obeying the law. There is no alternate path and it certainly wouldn't come through the claims Paul has thusly made.

{Rom 6:1 NKJV} What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound?	Why not Paul? If grace abounds through sin as you said before, why wouldn't we do that as Luther says?
{Rom 6:2 NKJV} Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it?	Certainly - you "died to sin" because you confess faith in Jesus and believe it is him living in you now. And Paul explains this in later chapters.
{Rom 6:3 NKJV} Or do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were immersed into His death?	If you recall in Romans 1, Paul took Habakkuk out of context. And contextually the proud man who can't stay home (like Paul, he has to leave his home and convert people to his Gospel, never having children) is putting you in a covenant of death. This blatantly tells you the truth. You have made a covenant with death, you are immersed into the death of Jesus with him. You have died with him, is a common theme of Paulinist theology.
{Rom 6:4 NKJV} Therefore we were buried with Him through immersion into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.	The immersion to Paul doesn't represent a wanting to wash away sin, but to represent death. To go under the water in Jesus' name represents death, and burial. Is it necessary to die to live, and to live is to die? This is not an idea exclusive to Paul as I brought up earlier. It is throughout the NT.
{Rom 6:5 NKJV} For if we have been united together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also shall be {in the likeness} of {His} resurrection,	{Isa 28:14-15 LSB} Therefore, hear the word of Yahweh, O scoffers, Who rule this people who are in Jerusalem, Because you have said, "We have cut a covenant with death, And with Sheol/Shaul we have made a pact. The overflowing scourge will not reach us when it passes by, For we have made falsehood our refuge and we have hidden ourselves with lying." You who immerse yourselves in death? You have made falsehood your refuge, believing the murder of Jesus covers your transgression. {Isa 28:16-18 LSB} Therefore thus says Lord Yahweh, "Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a tested stone, A costly cornerstone {for} the foundation, firmly placed. He who believes {in it} will not be disturbed. "I will make justice the measuring line And righteousness the level; Then hail will sweep away the refuge of falsehood, And the waters will overflow the secret place. "Your covenant with death will be canceled, And your pact with Sheol will not stand; When the overflowing scourge passes through, Then you will become its trampling {place}.A time is coming when Christianity will cease to be.

{Rom 6:6 NKJV} knowing this, that our old man was crucified with {Him}, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin.	Hindsight being what it is? Perhaps sin wouldn't be an issue in Paul's camp if he didn't teach against the Torah?
{Rom 6:7 NKJV} For he who has died has been freed from sin.	Sin is not slavery, sin is not a substance - it is not inherited. You sin, when you transgress the law of God. This doesn't now mean you are without hope. Were the Ninevites who were Gentiles have no hope in their sin?No, they turned from it, fasted, mourned for their sin and changed their works. Then God blotted out their sin debt, and passed over them.
{Rom 6:8 NKJV} Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,	This is Enochian mythology, very heavily influenced by Greek philosophy. Death is life, life is death.
{Rom 6:9 NKJV} knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no longer has dominion over Him.	Death is not a substance, it has no "dominion" or lordship. This goes back to what these people believed about the creation - they didn't believe what is plainly in Genesis that man was created mortal.
{Rom 6:10 NKJV} For {the death} that He died, He died to sin once for all; but {the life} that He lives, He lives to God.	If you repeat it Paul does it become true? The death that he died would have been for his own sin. The resurrection the NT claims? It is absolutely the weakest link.
{Rom 6:11 NKJV} Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.	You'll find very few Paulinists that live like this, they believe they can never stop sinning.
{Rom 6:12 NKJV} Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.	Funny coming from the man who says this of Jesus: {2Co 5:21 LSB} He made Him who knew no sin {to be} sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him. Jesus is sin.Where is Jesus standing? {Rev 3:20 LSB} 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me.Where have I seen this before?{Gen 4:6-7 LSB} Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? "If you do well, will not {your countenance} be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is lying at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must rule over it."There is no other allusion to something at the "door of our heart knocking" to be let in within Tanakh. So Jesus, who is sin, knocks to be let in. God tells us sin lies at the door of our heart, but we can rule over it.Without Jesus.

{Rom 6:13 NKJV} And do not present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.	"Alive from the dead" - see what I mean? Death is life?This is contrary to the Torah and the Prophets.
{Rom 6:14 NKJV} For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.	Grace is Paul's replacement for the law, and this spirit of Grace is why his followers struggle with sin - they hear the knock of Jesus and let him in.
{Rom 6:15 NKJV} What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not!	Paul's argumentation relies on quite a lot of repetition. This is the same statement he made in Romans 6:1
{Rom 6:16 NKJV} Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one's slaves whom you obey, whether of sin {leading} to death, or of obedience {leading} to righteousness?	Now he's saying like in Romans 2 that we must obey God. The only thing I can figure with Romans and the reason it has these double entries?Some later redactor was trying to make the Paul of Galatians less Marcionite and more law friendly. The result is a mish-mash of mixed up doctrine in Romans which is far less consistent than Galatians.
{Rom 6:17 NKJV} But God be thanked that {though} you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered.	See the change in focus from earlier texts? Now it's not faith, but OBEYING the word that was delivered.
{Rom 6:18 NKJV} And having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.	Become slaves of righteousness, but if righteousness is the law, and the law is done away with replaced by grace? What does this mean?
{Rom 6:19 NKJV} I speak in human {terms} because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves of uncleanness, and of lawlessness {leading} to {more} lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves {of} righteousness for holiness.	Would a slave of righteousness pretend to drink blood?
{Rom 6:20 NKJV} For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.	No one is a slave to sin, and even if that were true - how would that make you free in regard to what's righteous?
{Rom 6:21 NKJV} What fruit did you have then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things {is} death.	I thought we died in Jesus? The beginning of Christianity is also death.

{Rom 6:22 NKJV} But now having been set free from sin, and having become slaves of God, you have your fruit to holiness, and the end, everlasting life.	If we're free from sin, why do you need to explain repeatedly (and he does) that they stop sinning? There's a clear disconnect here Christians miss. But Paul, like in Romans 2, states their righteousness is what will lead to everlasting life. This is why I now believe there had to be a second editor here.
{Rom 6:23 NKJV} For the wages of sin {is} death, but the gift of God {is} eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.	The "wages" of INTENTIONAL sin is death. When David committed murder and adultery, there is no possible atonement through any offering. He couldn't take any amount of bulls and sheep or goats to the place of offering and atone for those sins. But yet, through his repentance God let him live. Not through Jesus, and God never promises eternal life - this is a Babylonian fiction.
{Rom 7:1 NKJV} Or do you not know, brethren (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives?	Is the law "lord" that it has dominion over one? This is such a weird view of the law, especially given how often we see: {Psa 119:97, 113, 163, 165 LSB} MEM Oh how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day. ... SAMEKH I hate those who are double-minded, But I love Your law. ... I hate and abhor lying, {But} I love Your law. ... Those who love Your law have much peace, And nothing causes them to stumble. He loves the law, Paul sees it as a tutor to go away when faith comes.
{Rom 7:2 NKJV} For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to {her} husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, she is released from the law of {her} husband.	Is a woman who has a husband bound to him? Yes until that Husband divorces her. Paul's second statement however is utterly a lie. If the Husband dies is she "released from the law"? Deu 24:3 LSB - and if the latter husband turns against her and writes her a certificate of divorce and puts {it} in her hand and sends her out of his house, or if the latter husband dies who took her to be his wife, No, and even Paul writes comments that make this statement a lie. Gal 3:17 LSB - And what I am saying is this: the Law, which came 430 years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to abolish the promise. Did the death of Abraham nullify the covenant (and law) given Abraham? Not according to Paul - and I would agree, as circumcision is embedded in the law given to Moses.
Rom 7:3 LSB - So then, if while her husband is living she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress though she is joined to another man.	Torah doesn't say this - but Jesus does, and they likely put those words: Mat 5:31-32 LSB - "Now it was said, 'WHOEVER SENDS HIS WIFE AWAY, LET HIM GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE OF DIVORCE'; but I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for the reason of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. Luk 16:18 LSB - "Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries a woman who is divorced from a husband commits adultery. This is NOT Torah, it is Pauline theology they put in the mouth of Jesus. Torah says the put away woman can marry another man, but then she is in covenant with that man, even if that second man dies she cannot return to the first who put her away. This is problematic for David, as he took Michal from her second husband.

Rom 7:4 LSB - So, my brothers, you also were made to die to the Law through the body of Christ, so that you might be joined to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God.	Paul's repetition is constant - you have died in Christ, thus nullifying the Torah - but the conclusion is even more bizarre. Remember Isaiah says of Israel: Isa 54:5 LSB - "For your husband is your Maker, Whose name is Yahweh of hosts; And your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel, Who is called the God of all the earth. That YHWH God is the Husband of Israel. But Paul speaks of being married to another to him who was raised from the dead. If Jesus is truly the "Son of God" then Jesus is still breaking Torah taking his Father's wife. His death and your death by proxy through him wouldn't change any of that as we've shown from Torah and from Paul's own hand.
Rom 7:5 LSB - For while we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were {aroused} by the Law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death.	Paul's claim is that the law arouses sinful passions within him. Why is this claim absent from the law and the Prophets? Psa 119:33-34 LSB - HE Instruct me, O Yahweh, in the way of Your statutes, That I may observe it to the end. Cause me to understand, that I may observe Your law And keep it with all {my} heart. And as for death - he just told you that immersion in Jesus IS YOUR DEATH AND BURIAL What leads to death according to Torah is NOT immediate disobedience, it is TRYING TO COVER YOUR SIN WITH PRIDE. This is what the Rabbi and Pastors tell you to do. For the Jew, they are born a Jew and shall have peace though they walk cursed. For the Christian, the NT promises affliction for following the man Jesus, and promises you simultaneously to declare his peace over yourself. Both are in danger of being permanently cut off according to YHWH. Deu 29:19-20 LSB - "And it will be when he hears the words of this curse, that he will bless himself in his heart, saying, 'I have peace though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart in order to sweep away the watered {land} with the dry.' "Yahweh shall not be willing to pardon him, but rather the anger of Yahweh and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse which is written in this book will rest on him, and Yahweh will blot out his name from under heaven.

Rom 7:6 LSB - But now we have been released from the Law, having died to that by which we were constrained, so that we serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.	Messianics:"Paul is not anti Torah"Paul:"Now we have been released from the law, having died to that by which we were constrained"Both of these cannot possibly be true. Note as well, Paul talks about serving in "newness of the Spirit, not in oldness of the letter"He's not talking about the oral law which was not yet written - he's talking against the written Torah. All of the Prophets when speaking of a tsedeqa ruach (right spirit / new spirit) are speaking of your ability to do and perform Torah without intentional sin.
Rom 7:7 LSB - What shall we say then? Is the Law sin? May it never be! Rather, I would not have come to know sin except through the Law. For I would not have known about coveting if the Law had not said, "YOU SHALL NOT COVET."	Now that Paul declared the law sin, someone had to add this to counter the Marcion narrative. The idea that you can't know sin without the law is utterly flawed logic.Here's one example.Gen 20:9 LSB - Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me things that ought not to be done."The only law given thus far is the law given to Noah and his three sons. None of those commands talk about sexual immorality or adultery. Yet Abimelech, without this law being given, knew that what he was about to do to Sara was a sin. Thus - how would you know, "you shall not covet" without reading the law? Because it is already written on your heart, as God told Cain. Gen 4:6-7 LSB - Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? "If you do well, will not {your countenance} be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is lying at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must rule over it."Did God tell Cain it was a sin to murder? No, but he told him that if he continued down the path he was on, that he would sin. But that Cain had the power within him to rule over sin and to do what is right, WITHOUT JESUS.
Rom 7:8 LSB - But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, worked out in me coveting of every kind. For apart from the Law sin {is} dead.	This is Paul's confession that he can't rule over sin as God promised Cain. That the only solution to said sin is to kill the law through Jesus' death.
Rom 7:9 LSB - Now I was once alive apart from the Law, but when the commandment came, sin revived and I	Paul was sinning before knowledge of the law came, and didn't stop when conviction of the law came to correct him.

died;	He didn't rule over that sin as God told Cain he could do, he let it rule over him and kill him. This is especially telling as Paul admits Jesus is death and in 2 Co 5:21 that Jesus is sin. 2Co 5:21 LSB - He made Him who knew no sin {to be} sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him. Jesus is also at the door of your heart knocking to enter. Rev 3:20 LSB - 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me. Jesus aka sin, knocks at the door - but you should rule over him.
Rom 7:10 LSB - and this commandment, which was to lead to life, was found to lead to death for me.	It has to be Messianics utterly ignore passages like this about the command and the law, that Paul says contrary things to. He's referencing Proverbs 6:23 here. Pro 6:23 LSB - For the commandment is a lamp and the law is light; And reproofs for discipline are the way of life Though Solomon says the commandment is a lamp, the law is light and reproofs for discipline are the way of life? Paul says within those words he found only death. Solomon lied?
Rom 7:11 LSB - For sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me.	So Paul is now calling God a liar, that no one can rule over sin and the law given by God in fact amplifies the power of sin. He also says the commandment deceived him - there is simply no way to try and shoehorn Paul into a Torah compliant teacher. No one who loves Torah would say this nonsense. Psa 19:7-9 LSB - The law of Yahweh is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of Yahweh is sure, making wise the simple. The precepts of Yahweh are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of Yahweh is pure, enlightening the eyes. The fear of Yahweh is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of Yahweh are true; they are righteous altogether.
Rom 7:12 LSB - So, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.	makes no sense with what Paul just said about the law. How could a commandment that deceives you, leads you to being killed by holy, righteous and good?
Rom 7:13 LSB - Therefore did that which is good become {a cause of} death for me? May it never be! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by working out my death through that which is good, so that through the commandment sin would become	This statement is gibberish - it makes no sense, it is utterly nonsensical. 1. The law is good and as it establishes is the cause of life for those who obey it. Dt 30:9-17 utterly sinful.	2. The goal of the commands is not that sin becomes utterly sinful, but that you turn from them through reproof to live.

Rom 7:14 LSB - For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, having been sold into bondage under sin.	Paul's assertion here is bullocks - the law is not spiritual, it was given by YHWH to record in the written Torah. It exists as a physical document. His second assertion is also utterly bullocks, we are all men of flesh, made from mud. Adam was made from mud, you are descended from the mud man. His last assertion is equally ludicrous. Sin is not bondage, if it was then God lied to Cain.
Rom 7:15 LSB - For what I am working out, I do not understand; for I am not practicing what I {would} like to {do}, but I am doing the very thing I hate.	I'm going to debunk this statement from Jacob who was clearly writing against Paul's hypocrisy. Jas 1:23-24 LSB - For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror; for {once} he looked at himself and has gone away, he immediately forgot what kind of person he was. Paul heard the word, declared it sin and declared he would keep sinning to glorify God's grace.
Rom 7:16 LSB - But if I do the very thing I do not want, I agree with the Law, that it is good.	Again from Jacob: Jas 1:25 LSB - But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the {law} of freedom, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does. It is good, and if the law says to do it - if you can you should. Now I say, "if" as there are circumstances here in our present day that make certain things impossible. Unless you live off grid with no power or turn your power off on the Sabbath you are violating the Torah. If you leave your house on the Sabbath to congregate (Which you have to as you have no community) you violate Torah. If you cook or light fire to keep warm in our colder north american climates, you violate Torah. If you buy something at the store, chances are it was prepared, packaged or shipped on the sabbath. The worst part of this came to mind last night, you have these various "Torah keepers" believing they are perfectly keeping the Sabbath restrictions yet have a package show up on the Sabbath and say, "this is fine". Is it fine that your brethren work on the day of rest, while you rest?
Rom 7:17 LSB - So now, no longer am I the one working it out, but sin which dwells in me.	Is sin responsible for your sin? Jas 1:13-16 LSB - Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God"; for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He Himself does not tempt anyone. But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust. Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin, and when sin is fully matured, it brings forth death. Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. Your lust gives birth to sin, your sin gives birth to death. Do not be deceived about Paul.

Rom 7:18 LSB - For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the working out of the good {is} not.	What Paul is saying here is pure Platonic nonsense. "Nothing good in me" Yet God says: Gen 1:27-31 LSB - And God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over every living thing that creeps on the earth." Then God said, "Behold, I have given to you every plant yielding seed that is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree which has {the} fruit of {the} tree yielding seed; it shall be food for you; and to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the sky and to every thing that creeps on the earth which has life, {I have given} every green plant for food"; and it was so. And God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day. This is after making man a mortal being, from mud - he made him flesh and blood and said, "IT IS GOOD." Later on when the world was in rebellion he says of Noah: Gen 6:9 LSB - These are the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among {those in} his generations; Noah walked with God. Noah was a TSEDEQA man - righteous / good / upright in his generation. And the "working out of good" goes back to what God told Cain in the beginning. That he can do what's right. "If you do well, will not {your countenance} be lifted up?" According to Paul, YOU and I cannot do what's right, we are slaves of our flesh which is under permanent penalty of the law. But this is not what the law says, this is not what the Prophets state and even James disagrees with Paul here.
Rom 7:19 LSB - For the good that I want, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want.	Again to Paul, "If you do well, will not {your countenance} be lifted up?" God told Cain he could do well, he could act righteously. That he could rule over his sin. Yet Paul is telling you HE CANNOT, that instead he practices the very evil that he claims to not want to do. (which I frankly don't believe, if you don't want to then strive against it with all your might)

Rom 7:20 LSB - But if I am doing the very thing I do not want, I am no longer the one working it out, but sin which dwells in me.	Then after all of that - he doesn't blame himself as James and Torah and the Prophets all point to, he blames sin for this sinful action he claims he can't escape from. According to Jacob: But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust. Then when lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin Sin is not "dwelling in you" sin is the result of you listening to your own lusts, instead of to God almighty.
Rom 7:21 LSB - I find then the principle that in me evil is present--in me who wants to do good.	According to everything we just read, is "evil present within us"? Wouldn't this make God a liar to Cain? And if Paul truly wanted to do good wouldn't he sound more like King David and not like Plato? Psa 51:10-13 LSB - Create in me a clean heart, O God, And renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from Your presence And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of Your salvation And sustain me with a willing spirit. {Then} I will teach transgressors Your ways, And sinners will be converted to You. What "ways" was David talking about teaching? Torah and that in teaching Torah, sinners will be converted to YHWH. This is the same thing the first Psalm states. Psa 1:1-3 LSB - How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the way of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers! But his delight is in the law of Yahweh, And in His law he meditates day and night. And he will be like a tree {firmly} planted by streams of water, Which yields its fruit in its season And its leaf does not wither; And in whatever he does, he prospers. Meditating on the law day and night makes you a tree that regardless of the conditions and the soil (externalities) you will prosper. This is also opposite of the NT.
Rom 7:22-23 LSB - For I joyfully concur with the law of God in the inner man, but I see a different law in my members, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a captive to the law of sin which is in my members.	Paul's lie is so attractive to those struggling with affliction and sin. Blame the sin, and cover yourself in the murdered blood of Jesus. Deu 27:25 LSB - 'Cursed is he who takes a bribe to strike down innocent blood.' And all the people shall say, 'Amen.' The war Paul was waging was because he let the lusts of his heart control him. He was a double-minded man.
Rom 7:24 LSB - Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from the body of this death?	Jas 5:19-20 LSB - My brothers, if any among you strays from the truth and one turns him back, let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will COVER A MULTITUDE OF SINS. They tried to save you from your "body of death" here: Act 18:13 LSB - saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law." And here: Act 21:21 LSB - and they have been told about you, that you are teaching all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children nor to walk according to the customs. And we know from Paul's letters and what we just read these accusations are 100% true. They tried to deliver you from your path of sin, but when you pretended to be a Jew around the Jews (1 CO 9:19-23) you got arrested: Act 21:27-29 LSB - Now when the seven days were almost over, the Jews from Asia, upon noticing him in the temple, {began to} throw all the crowd into confusion and laid hands on him, crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches to everyone everywhere against our people and the Law and this place; and besides, he has even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple. And after coming to trial, what do you do? Act 23:2-5 LSB - And the high priest Ananias commanded those standing beside him to strike him on the mouth. Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to try me according to the Law, and in violation of the Law order me to be struck?" But those standing nearby said, "Do you revile the high priest of God?" And Paul said, "I was not aware, brothers, that he was high priest; for it is written, 'YOU SHALL NOT SPEAK EVIL OF A RULER OF YOUR PEOPLE.'" He immediately reviles the high priest. How many of you believe the "Pharisee of Pharisees" wasn't aware of who the High Priest was? This is his first lie. Then comes this. Act 23:6-9 LSB - But knowing that one group were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul {began} crying out in the Sanhedrin, "Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for the hope and resurrection of the dead!" As he said this, there was dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all. And there occurred a great outcry; and some of the scribes of the Pharisaic party stood up and {began to} argue heatedly, saying, "We find nothing wrong with this man. Suppose a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?" Paul was not arrested, not on trial for preaching resurrection of the dead. Note he says nothing about the reason he was arrested, which was suspicion of bringing in an uncircumcised man to the holy place. He sees that the two groups are there, and intentionally says something that he knows will cause confusion and chaos and distract from the real reason he was arrested. This continual sin, is why he was so wracked with guilt and sought a solution in the murder of Jesus.

Rom 7:25 LSB - Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind am serving the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh the law of sin.	You can't resolve sin through sin - note that James says NOTHING of Jesus dying for your sin, that you cover sin by turning your brother from sin. Paul also admits to being double-minded here, that on the one hand he serves the law of God but his flesh the law of sin. He is completely double-minded, a hypocrite. He admits to this hypocrisy repeatedly.
Rom 8:1 LSB - Therefore there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.	This is key to understanding this entire chapter and the attempts to make Paul law abiding from it. None of the law or Prophets declare this. Righteousness does not come from being inside of Christos (Messiah) of any kind, Jesus or otherwise.
Rom 8:2 LSB - For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death.	This is where some Messianics try to distinguish the "many laws of Paul" to try and enslave you to the lying apostle. 1. There is no "Law of Sin and Death". Show me where any prophet says this. 2. None of the law and the Prophets declare the law is of spirit or life comes through Christos.
Rom 8:3 LSB - For what the Law could not do, weak as it was through the flesh, God {did}: sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and {as an offering} for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh,	Then they'll ignore what this plainly says - the law is weak. The law was weak? Psa 19:7 LSB - The law of Yahweh is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of Yahweh is sure, making wise the simple. How can something perfect be weak, regardless of flesh or soul? Second, the big lie that Jesus is the son of God. Replacement of Israel. Exo 4:22 LSB - "Then you shall say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says Yahweh, "Israel is My son, My firstborn. Then Paul tells us this man came "in the likeness" of "sinful flesh". 1. Flesh is not sinful, God created it and called it good. 2. This likeness of flesh is interesting as according to Romans 1, anyone making Jesus into God is a fool. 3. It also could have influenced the later Docetists that John was writing against in the second century, that believed Jesus didn't come in actual flesh, but a representation or image of flesh.

{Rom 8:4 LSB} so that the righteous requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.	Is the “righteous requirement of the law” fulfilled by “walking according to the spirit and not the flesh”? Is that what Moses or any of the Prophets state about righteousness? {Deu 6:25 LSB} "And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, just as He commanded us. No - righteousness comes from what you do in your “flesh” not what you think in your “spirit”. And by the way, I’ll get to this again when I go through Galatians - what Paul says in Galatians: {Gal 2:21 LSB} "I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness {comes} through the Law, then Christ died needlessly." Also is clearly debunked by DT 6:25, which says righteousness comes from doing the law. This means Christ died needlessly.
{Rom 8:5 LSB} For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.	Verses like this are why Christians are actually Platonists, even Messianics, Hebrew Roots types. They still believe this Platonic philosophy over what Torah plainly states. We are all made of flesh and blood, we are not spiritual beings trapped in a physical body. That is Greek Philosophy, not Hebraic theology.
{Rom 8:6 LSB} For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace,	This is Paul’s command, it’s not in the law and the Prophets. {Deu 30:16 LSB} in that I am commanding you today to love Yahweh your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, that you may live and multiply, and that Yahweh your God may bless you in the land where you are entering to possess it. Life and peace come from obeying the commands, not setting your mind on spiritual things.
{Rom 8:7 LSB} because the mind set on the flesh is {at} enmity toward God, for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able {to do so},	This is quite a bold statement - “the mind of the flesh is enmity toward God” When did any Prophet state this? But instead prophets like Isaiah state: {Isa 1:18 LSB} "Come now, and let us reason together," Says Yahweh, "Though your sins are as scarlet, They will be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They will be like wool. Why would you be compelled to reason with YHWH God if your mind of flesh is an enemy of God? Didn't he create us as flesh and blood?

{Rom 8:8 LSB} and those who are in the flesh are not able to please God.	Romans is just non stop with straw man arguments. {Gen 2:7 LSB} Then Yahweh God formed man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and so the man became a living being. God formed Adam the first man as a mortal being from the ground, then breathed his spirit (life) into the man. He declared this what? Good, not bad not against him. After the expulsion from the garden, Cain who brought forth a poorer offering was told what? That his flesh cannot please God? {Gen 4:6-7 LSB} Then Yahweh said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? "If you do well, will not {your countenance} be lifted up? And if you do not do well, sin is lying at the door; and its desire is for you, but you must rule over it." No - that if he does well, he will be accepted. It's not talking about mental ascent, faith, trust or even "spiritual" matters. This is matters we can do, being created in flesh and blood and not created as immortal beings, not pre-existing the creation of Earth.
{Rom 8:9 LSB} However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.	This is standard NT gaslighting and it is built upon eight verses of logical fallacies that precede it. If you walk according to Paul's platonic philosophy you please his God - but is this what God says pleases him? {Mic 6:6-8 LSB} With what shall I come before Yahweh {And} bow myself before the God on high? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, With yearling calves? Is Yahweh pleased with thousands of rams, With ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn {for} my transgression, The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He has told you, O man, what is good; And what does Yahweh require of you But to do justice, to love lovingkindness, And to walk humbly with your God? And what is this, `spirit of Christos` considering the word at it's root either means to smear oil on the chosen human being (to "anoint") or in Greek, a common lexical usage is to smear or consume drugs. And this is a likely usage by Paul, that you have the "spirit of Christing" as he says in Galatians: {Gal 2:20 LSB} "I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. And the {life} which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me. The phrase is utter nonsense - Christos / mashiach, the process of smearing oil on a chosen human being cannot dwell in any man. So what Paul has to be talking of here is consuming a drug and letting the spirit of that drug control him. This is why he follows up the way he does, that if you refuse to partake of the christing, then you do not belong to him.

{Rom 8:10 LSB} But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit is alive because of righteousness.	Look at the phrasing here - is CHRISTOS >> IN << you? Did you smear it on your skin, in your eyes? He is clearly alluding to drug use of some kind. And this euphoric state they would enter they would consider themselves to be "in the spirit" and "not in the flesh" - not sober, but high on the christing. Note: All the Pauline (including 1 Peter written by Sylvanus, a compatriot of Paul) references to "being sober" are likely later redactions. The church came hard against the use of the christing oil in spiritual experiences. (But apparently not as hard against the sexual abuse of boys)
{Rom 8:11 LSB} But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you.	One of the consistent theological points Christians make is the resurrection proving he is God. According to the NT, the Spirit of God raised Jesus from the dead, he didn't raise himself. Paul's claim is that this spirit now lives inside of you. Just simply, where is the Torah command to communicate with Spirits, and let them live inside of you? {Deu 18:10-11 LSB} 10 "There shall not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices soothsaying or one who interprets omens or a sorcerer, 11 or one who is an enchanter or a medium or a spiritist or one who inquires of the dead. One who is an enchanter - someone who declares the power of words over a situation, instead of trusting in YHWH alone. One who is a medium or a spiritist - What else could we call someone constantly talking about the "SPIRIT" within them, then a medium or a spiritist? One who inquires of the dead - We've already established Jesus was fully man, and not God - so when you pray to him, inquire of him? You are performing divination, you are inquiring of the dead! I know the interlocutor will proclaim, "HE LIVES!" does Torah make an exception?
{Rom 8:12-13 LSB} So then, brothers, we are under obligation, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh--for if you are living according to the flesh, you must die, but if by the Spirit you are putting to death the practices of the body, you will live.	The only obligation we have is to YHWH alone, not to your flesh or some alien spirit. "If you are living according to the flesh, you must die, but if you are putting to death the practices of the body, you will live."I wonder if Paul, like the Essenes, forbade pooping on the sabbath as it defiled them.This also reminds me of a statement Jesus makes in John. {Jhn 11:26 LSB} and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die--ever. Do you believe this?" For the past 2000 years - every Christian that believes in Jesus has died. So both Paul and Jesus are falsely prophesying here, fulfilling Dt 18:20-22. The only other conclusion?1. None of them believed the words of Jesus, thus they all died. 2. All of them lived according to the flesh, so they all died. Interlocutor:"They are talking about the second death" This is your pretext over the text - neither text says that.

{Rom 8:14 LSB} For as many as are being led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.	Now this verse is quite interesting giving how hyper focused Christians are on insisting Jesus is the son of God - when Jesus and Paul believed he was a BROTHER making a path for you ALL to become sons and daughters of God. But the truth is like everything else? This isn't what makes you a son of God by Torah. {Hos 11:1 LSB} When Israel {was} a youth I loved him, And out of Egypt I called My son. Now - the outsider can certainly be grafted in and by Torah become a servant of the Priests. They have no inheritance, they are considered equivalent to one that is Fatherless.
{Rom 8:15 LSB} For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received {the} Spirit of adoption as sons by whom we cry out, "Abba! Father!"	This is one of the verses Christians use to justify not fearing God. And as with all things Paul, he has to repeat a point over and over again. This doesn't make it true, repetition just hammers home the lie.
{Rom 8:16 LSB} The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God,	So your whole testimony of being "adopted" now as a child of God is a feeling that the "spirit" of God has testified to your spirit that it is true?Are we seriously just trusting our feelings? Trusting our heart?
{Rom 8:17 LSB} and if children, also heirs, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with {Him} so that we may also be glorified with {Him}.	The heir of God is Israel, that's the whole point of YHWH declaring Israel is the firstborn - this signifies the inheritance, the heir goes solely to physical Israel and no other nation.

{Rom 8:18-21 LSB} For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that is to be revealed to us. For the anxious longing of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of Him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.	Paul often calls out to an unfulfilled hope, the first century under Roman rule was one of the worst in human history. The People are massively afflicted, and Paul's message of deferred hope appeals to them. Even today, Christians target the afflicted with prison ministries and other such things. Some people who aren't afflicted are also attracted to the message, being raised with it. But the fact remains, Paul is clearly selling that your present trials and affliction (Read Lev 26 and Dt 28) are nothing to compare to this deferred and unfulfilled hope. 2000 years later, they all died and that hope is still not fulfilled. {Pro 13:12 LSB} Hope deferred makes the heart sick, But desire fulfilled is a tree of life. This is why Christians go around the world like Amway salesmen capturing afflicted souls, they are heart sick for their deferred hope - but clearly if we believe the words of Solomon a desire fulfilled is the tree of life. God is not against your desires, but your desires can be against God if they break his 10 words.
{Rom 8:22 LSB} For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now.	This is what every Christian has to believe because the NT - Paul says it is so. That something in creation is flawed, it's not perfect, it's not good as YHWH God said in the beginning. It is groaning and suffering UNTIL NOW - now Paul is selling hope that this will change. It's important to recognize here, Paul was writing this to people 2000 years ago and nothing since then has changed.
{Rom 8:23 LSB} And not only this, but also we ourselves, having the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for {our} adoption as sons, the redemption of our body.	This is why I tell Christians - the NT absolutely does not teach you are presently saved. It is a deferred hope as Paul says and because it is unfulfilled what does Paul say? That you are groaning within yourselves and eagerly waiting for this adoption to happen. But it never happened, 2000 years later and Christians are still waiting.
{Rom 8:24-26 LSB} For in hope we were saved, but hope that is seen is not hope, for who hopes for what he already sees? But if we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we eagerly wait for it. And in the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for {us} with groanings too deep for words;	Read those first words many times, Paul declares your salvation a HOPE - not a reality. The greatest scam ever sold, that you are saved by confessing Jesus but Paul says it is a HOPE, and over and over again even Paul says you can lose this hope. When I get to Hebrews it will really hammer why this "New" revelation is absolutely inferior to what came before. Now does the "Spirit" help in their weakness? There are numerous testimonies of people who have changed their life for Jesus. Is a changed life for Allah just as valid? A changed life for Jesus but their Catholic? Eastern Orthodox? Mormon? Jehovah Witness? Calvinist? If any Christian reads this, they'll likely be in one of those camps and believe those in other camps are "not really saved" but in a cult. The truth is you all are - A changed life is not a sign you are following the truth. {Deu 13:1-4 LSB} "If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder, and the sign or the wonder comes true, concerning which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us walk after other gods (whom you have not known) and let us serve them,' you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams; for Yahweh your God is testing you to find out if you love Yahweh your God with all your heart and with all your soul. "You shall walk after Yahweh your God and fear Him; and you shall keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him, and cling to Him. Their sign or wonder from their deferred and unfulfilled hope is a changed life. But they follow after Jesus/Yeshua another Elohim - they don't follow after YHWH alone.

{Rom 8:27 LSB} and He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to {the will of} God.	There's a saying that every lie has to be mixed with an element of truth. Yes YHWH God does search the heart, but is he doing so to "intercede" for the "saints of God"? {Jer 17:9-10 LSB} "The heart is more deceitful than all else And is desperately sick; Who can know it? "I, Yahweh, search the heart; I test the inmost being, Even to give to each man according to his ways, According to the fruit of his deeds. Not at all - what you believe is far less important than the fruit of your deeds, by which all men will be judged.
{Rom 8:28 LSB} And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to [His] purpose.	Paul does the same thing here - the fact is you know Jesus/Yeshua - you don't Yada Yah. (Know YHWH alone) He's reflecting off the story in Genesis when Joseph was sold into slavery. At the time he was puffed up, and had to be humbled. If you read Lev 26 / Deut 28 (part of the problem with Job) God doesn't curse the righteous. If Job was really a righteous man and subject to the curses of YHWH? Then you've made God a liar.
{Rom 8:29-30 LSB} Because those whom He foreknew, He also predestined [to become] conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brothers; and those whom He predestined, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified;	So many logical fallacies here. 1. You didn't pre-exist, what's interesting is this is literally Mormon theology. That you pre-existed in some space or time, and that God foreknew you for this space and time. None of Tanakh supports this and those whom He justified, He also glorified.	but this is what Paul is talking about with his predestination lie. What Paul is referring to here is God's foreknowledge of using certain men for certain tasks (Isaiah and Jeremiah state this, before they were formed they were known by God - meaning he had set them apart for God's role.) 2. The Son of God is Israel. (Ex 4:22) 3. It's interesting that Paul believes he is the "firstborn" when you talk to Christians (and I just ran into this, this past weekend pointing out that Ex 4:22 calls Israel the firstborn) they told me Yeshua is the SECOND born of God. This is common sadly, they'll go against the words of their writings to remain under control of Yeshua and Paul. 4. This passage is why John had to have been written by a disciple of Paul. The Synoptics never speak of a "calling" but Paul and John are loaded with this language. 5. "He Justified" - justification comes from doing what is right, not putting your faith in the murder of Yeshua or his supposed resurrection. (The resurrection is the weakest link of the NT) 6. Since YHWH says he will not share his glory (repeatedly) how is this faith in something God forbids going to glorify you?

{Rom 8:31 LSB} What then shall we say to these things? If God [is] for us, who [is] against us?	Notice the word that Christians miss? IF God is for you - then indeed who can be against you? The problem is as a believer in Jesus? God is not for you. The entire NT admits this, and even in context here? Paul tells us God is not for him.
{Rom 8:32 LSB} He who indeed did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him over for us all, how will He not also with Him graciously give us all things?	So there are loads of theories about the murder aka human sacrifice of Jesus. Is this is really true to my interlocutor? How is God not violating his Torah? {Deu 12:29-32 LSB} "When Yahweh your God cuts off before you the nations which you are going in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and inhabit their land, beware lest you be ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed before you, and lest you inquire after their gods, saying, 'How do these nations serve their gods, that I also may do likewise?' "You shall not do thus toward Yahweh your God, for every abominable act which Yahweh hates they have done for their gods; for they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. "Whatever I am commanding you, you shall be careful to do; you shall not add to nor take away from it. Do you really believe God did to "his son" what he forbade we do to our own sons and daughters? Now the interlocutor will likely bring up the story in Genesis 22, when Elohim tested

	Abraham.Let me ask from another angle, here's Jeremiah's testimony. {Jer 7:30-31 LSB} "For the sons of Judah have done that which is evil in My sight," declares Yahweh, "they have set their detestable things in the house, which is called by My name, to defile it. "They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command, and it did not come upon My heart.He didn't command they sacrifice their sons and daughters - and it also never came in his heart.If he never commanded what Abraham did, perhaps the Elohim testing Abraham wasn't YHWH?YHWH provided a Ram to turn Abraham from the traditions of the area, where Elohim were commanding them to sacrifice their sons and daughters.
{Rom 8:33 LSB} Who will bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one who justifies;	This goes back to Paul's claim in Romans 4:4-5, that the righteous are condemned and the wicked justified. {Pro 17:15 NKJV} He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just, Both of them alike {are} an abomination to the LORD. {Eze 13:22 NKJV} "Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and you have strengthened the hands of the wicked, so that he does not turn from his wicked way to save his life. {Exo 23:7 NKJV} "Keep yourself far from a false matter; do not kill the innocent and righteous. For I will not justify the wicked.God justifies and saves the righteous, not the wicked. Read on in Ezekiel, chapter 14. Though Noah, Daniel and Job were in that city - whom will be saved? Only those who do what's right, will be saved by their righteousness.
{Rom 8:34 LSB} who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, yes, rather who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.	Paul continually uses the term, "CHRISTOS" in a strange way. I have theories about that, but that is not relevant to this study. The point is Paul claims he died. Yes he died, can he die for you?Can a righteous man die for the wicked? {Exo 32:33 LSB} And Yahweh said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. {Jer 31:29-30 LSB} "In those days they will not say again, 'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, And the children's teeth are set on edge.' "But everyone will die for his own iniquity; each man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth will be set on edge.No - but Paul also claims that now Jesus is at the "right hand" of God, the right hand in Hebraic thinking represents the “arm” the strength of YHWH. So he’s telling you the man who died, the flesh and blood (Rom 8:3) man, is the strength of YHWH. {Jer 17:5-6 LSB} Thus says Yahweh, "Cursed is the man who trusts in mankind And makes flesh his strength, And whose heart turns away from Yahweh. "And he will be like a juniper in the desert And will not see when prosperity comes, But will dwell in stony wastes in the wilderness, A land of salt [which is] not inhabited.You’ve made the flesh and blood man Jesus the right hand, the arm of YHWH. According to Jeremiah that makes you cursed. Your heart has turned away from YHWH alone.

{Rom 8:35 LSB} Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will affliction, or turmoil, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?	If you’re in affliction, are you really blessed?Affliction SHOULD separate you from Jesus, and turn you back to YHWH instead most Christians GLORIFY affliction as a sign of truth, that Satan is out to get you for following Jesus.Is that why YHWH sent an evil spirit to Saul? Was he following the truth? What they say doesn’t match the Torah or the Prophets. Affliction is supposed to be a sign to us that something in our life is off, and we need to reflect/repent.
{Rom 8:36 LSB} Just as it is written, "FOR YOUR SAKE WE ARE BEING PUT TO DEATH ALL DAY LONG; WE WERE COUNTED AS SHEEP FOR [the] SLAUGHTER."	{Psa 44:20-23 LSB} If we had forgotten the name of our God Or spread our hands to a strange god, Would not God find this out? For He knows the secrets of the heart. But for Your sake we are killed all day long; We are counted as sheep for the slaughter. Arouse Yourself, why do You sleep, O Lord? Awake, do not reject us forever.Just compare these side by side - Paul is revealing your idolatry and why you are being led to the slaughter.
{Rom 8:37 NKJV} Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.	{Deu 29:16-21 LSB} for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed; moreover, you have seen their detestable things and their idols [of] wood, stone, silver, and gold, which [they had] with them-- lest there be among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from Yahweh our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there be among you a root bearing poisonous fruit and wormwood. "And it will be when he hears the words of this curse, that he will bless himself in his heart, saying, 'I have peace though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart in order to sweep away the watered [land] with the dry.' "Yahweh shall not be willing to pardon him, but rather the anger of Yahweh and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse which is written in this book will rest on him, and Yahweh will blot out his name from under heaven. "Then Yahweh will separate him out for adversity from all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant which are written in this book of the law. What do Christians do? They commit one of the two unforgivable sins in Torah. If you are cursed with affliction and do what Paul does here? You will suffer curses, exactly like he says. Remember I said, Paul admits to why he's under affliction - it is his disobedience, his idolatry.

{Rom 8:38-39 NKJV} For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.	Paul finished the thought and said: 'I have peace though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart in order to sweep away the watered [land] with the dry.' That nothing will separate him from his idol.
{Rom 9:1 NKJV} I tell the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit,	This is the liar's paradox - He has to inform you he's not lying, because he is. Should we trust Conscience? This is the heart, which is deceitful above all things. And Paul's last appeal is the Holy Spirit - YHWH never appeals to spirits, and as I witnessed from Torah above, this appeal is anti-Torah, it makes Paul a medium relying on spirits to be his second witness.
{Rom 9:2-4 NKJV} that I have great sorrow and continual grief in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my countrymen according to the flesh, who are Israelites, to whom [pertain] the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service [of God], and the promises;	I remember wishing this on myself as a Christian so my family wouldn't be cursed to everlasting hell fire. But the truth of the matter is - the same way Jesus cannot die for you, Paul cannot die for his brethren. He sort of admits that here, he wishes it was the case that he could die for them, but he knows that Torah forbids that. Yet it allows Jesus to die for you? Do you see the logical fallacy here? If Jesus can die for your sin, why can't Paul die for your sin? The Jews of this era did believe a righteous man can die to atone for the sins of the wicked. This idea absolutely influenced Paul and the early Christians, it's why they included the Maccabees in their canon. The biggest problem here, is Paul is cursing Israel in a way none of the Prophets ever did, even during the exile. {Isa 54:9 LSB} "For this is like the days of Noah to Me, When I swore that the waters of Noah Would not overflow the earth again; So I have sworn that I will not be furious with you Nor will I rebuke you. {Mal 3:6 LSB} "For I, Yahweh, do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed. God continually promises to restore them - and not through Jesus, it never says that.

{Rom 9:5 NKJV} of whom [are] the fathers and from whom, according to the flesh, Christ [came], who is over all, [the] eternally blessed God. Amen.	The promise was to physical Israel for the land, that as long as they remained in covenant with YHWH, they could remain in the land. How then can they return to the land? {Jer 3:12-14 LSB} "Go and call out these words toward the north and say, 'Return, faithless Israel,' declares Yahweh; 'I will not look upon you in anger. For I am One of lovingkindness,' declares Yahweh; 'I will not be angry forever. 'Only acknowledge your iniquity, That you have transgressed against Yahweh your God And have scattered your ways [of harlotry] to the strangers under every green tree, And you have not listened to My voice,' declares Yahweh. 'Return, O faithless sons,' declares Yahweh; 'For I am a master to you, And I will take you one from a city and two from a family, And I will bring you to Zion.' This notion is repeated in Luke - in the parable of the prodigal son. The Prodigal son represents Israel, the son who stayed is Judah. In this parable, the prodigal son returns - not to Judah or Jesus, but to the Father. The Son is forgiven without faith in Jesus, without making Jesus Lord or God.
{Rom 9:6 NKJV} But it is not that the word of God has taken no effect. For they [are] not all Israel who [are] of Israel,	It is lines like this and what Paul says in Romans 2 that has convinced me that the author who wrote Revelation was writing against Paul and his cult. Just two passages above, I quoted Isaiah 54:9 (read the entire chapter, it is about the afflicted servant - I truly believe Isaiah 54 is forbidden reading) and Malachi 3:6. Israel's promises will never be revoked and given to another.
{Rom 9:7-8 NKJV} nor [are they] all children because they are the seed of Abraham; but, "In Isaac your seed shall be called." That is, those who [are] the children of the flesh, these [are] not the children of God; but the children of the promise are counted as the seed.	This is an absolute nonsense statement by Paul - the seed of Abraham, Israel and Judah are not actually the seed of Abraham, they are NOT the children of God. This is one of the other solid proofs that John is a Pauline Gospel. You have Yeshua calling the Pharisees the sons of Satan, when they try to appeal to their sonship in Abraham. Paul's conclusion is also erroneous, and anti Torah. You aren't made an inheritor of Abraham through the promise of everlasting life in Jesus. Moses not once said that. None of the Prophets of Yah say this.
{Rom 9:9 NKJV} For this [is] the word of promise: "At this time I will come and Sarah shall have a son."	And indeed she did, bearing him in the flesh through the physical seed of Abraham. Isaac then gave birth to two sons, Edom and Jacob.
{Rom 9:10-11 NKJV} And not only [this], but when Rebecca also had conceived by one man, [even] by our father Isaac (for [the children] not yet being born, nor having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God	Was it their election or that Esau didn't love Yah and sold his inheritance for a bowl of soup?

according to election might stand, not of works but of Him who calls), {Rom 9:12-13 NKJV} it was said to her, "The older shall serve the younger." As it is written, "Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated."	Correct and if you read the story we find out why. Esau hated YHWH so YHWH hated Esau.
{Rom 9:14 NKJV} What shall we say then? [Is there] unrighteousness with God? Certainly not!	Well with YOUR God Paul there is, since he desires his own son to die for my sin which thing YHWH God forbade us ever doing through the commands he gave Moses.
{Rom 9:15 NKJV} For He says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I will have compassion."	YHWH God said this when Moses tried to atone for the sins of Israel by offering his own life in exchange for their life. It's kind of strange that every quote Paul makes, if you read the context? It absolutely destroys his pretext. As for whom he'll have mercy on, who is that? {Exo 33:17 LSB} Then Yahweh said to Moses, "I will also do this thing of which you have spoken; for you have found favor in My sight, and I have known you by name. Moses at this time (Before he hit the rock instead of speaking to it) was considered a righteous man.
{Rom 9:16 NKJV} So then [it is] not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy.	And on whom is that Paul? {Mic 6:6-8 LSB} With what shall I come before Yahweh [And] bow myself before the God on high? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, With yearling calves? Is Yahweh pleased with thousands of rams, With ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn [for] my transgression, The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He has told you, O man, what is good; And what does Yahweh require of you But to do justice, to love lovingkindness, And to walk humbly with your God?
{Rom 9:17 NKJV} For the Scripture says to the Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be declared in all the earth."	{Exo 9:13-17 LSB} And Yahweh said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and you shall say to him, 'Thus says Yahweh, the God of the Hebrews, "Let My people go, that they may serve Me. "For this time I will send all My plagues against your heart and amongst your servants and your people, so that you may know that there is no one like Me in all the earth. "For [if by] now I had sent forth My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, you would then have been wiped out from the earth. "But, indeed, for this reason I have caused you to stand, in order to show you My power and in order to recount My name through all the earth. "Still you exalt yourself against My people by not letting them go. God hardened the heart of Pharaoh, after the Pharaoh hardened his heart. Pharaoh became a fulfillment of Dt 29:17-21
{Rom 9:18 NKJV} Therefore He has mercy on whom He	Therefore, Paul created a straw man - and then tells us his

wills, and whom He wills He hardens.	conclusion must be correct. But we've already proven mercy is given to the righteous, not just randomly.
{Rom 9:19 NKJV} You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?"	If Faith in Jesus is the will of God? Why did the wisest man who walked on Earth say: {Ecc 12:9-14 LSB} In addition to being a wise man, the Preacher also taught the people knowledge; and he pondered, searched out, and arranged many proverbs. The Preacher sought to find delightful words and words of truth written uprightly. The words of wise men are like goads, and masters of [these] collections are like well-driven nails; they are given by one Shepherd. But in addition to this, my son, be warned: the making of many books is endless, and much devotion [to books] is wearying to the flesh. The end of the matter, all [that] has been heard: fear God and keep His commandments, because this is [the end of the matter for] all mankind. For God will bring every work to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil.
{Rom 9:20 NKJV} But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed say to him who formed [it], "Why have you made me like this?"	You mean like Job? {Job 10:19 LSB} 'I should have been as though I had not been, Carried from womb to tomb.'
{Rom 9:21 NKJV} Does not the potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?	This is why Calvinists believe people are predestined for hell - that God made them vessels of dishonor. Of course it's not true - Pharaoh's heart was hardened by himself, but because of that pride, YHWH sealed his fate. Why would God tell Cain he can resist sin, if he was made a vessel of dishonor and could not actually do that? Paul was into fatalism - it is the same thing heavily prevalent in Enoch's writings, but it is not a Hebraic (especially pre-exile) view of reality.
{Rom 9:22-24 NKJV} [What] if God, wanting to show [His] wrath and to make His power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction, and that He might make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, which He had prepared beforehand for glory, even us whom He called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?	Would God call you through the pretend consumption of blood and mock human sacrifice ritual? Would God call you saying that someone else can face the wrath of God for what you have done? Neither of these match the God of Tanak. You also still have Paul trying to steal the glory of YHWH.
{Rom 9:25 NKJV} As He says also in Hosea: "I will call them My people, who were not My people, And her beloved, who was not beloved."	{Hos 2:13-14 LSB} "So I will visit the days of the Baals upon her When she used to offer [offerings] in smoke to them And adorn herself with her earrings and jewelry And go after her lovers, so that she forgot Me," declares Yahweh. "Therefore, behold, I will allure her And bring her into the wilderness And speak to her heart. They (Israel) were not HIS, they gave their hearts to idols. When you ignore context and cherry pick out of context? You can make a passage say whatever you want.

{Rom 9:26 NKJV} "And it shall come to pass in the place where it was said to them, 'You [are] not My people,' There they shall be called sons of the living God."	{Hos 1:9-11 LSB} And Yahweh said, "Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not My people, and I am not your God." Yet the number of the sons of Israel Will be like the sand of the sea, Which cannot be measured or numbered; And it will be that in the place Where it is said to them, "You are not My people," It will be said to them, "[You are] the sons of the living God." And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will be gathered together, And they will set for themselves one head, And they will go up from the land, For great will be the day of Jezreel. Israel forced into exile were mocked about YHWH, and really in exile YHWH had turned his face from them. Not only here is Paul quoting it completely out of context, he's taking a partial quote and changing what the text says. "YOU ARE the sons of the living God" compared to; "There they SHALL BE CALLED sons of the living God." Hosea is appealing to knowledge of Ex 4:22, and in the same book Hosea says of Israel: {Hos 11:1 LSB} When Israel [was] a youth I loved him, And out of Egypt I called My son. Why would a reader then assume Hosea 1 is about anything other than Israel?
{Rom 9:27-28 NKJV} Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel: "Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, The remnant will be saved. For He will finish the work and cut [it] short in righteousness, Because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."	{Isa 10:20-22 LSB} Now it will be in that day, [that] the remnant of Israel and those of the house of Jacob who have escaped, will never again rely on the one who struck them, but will truly rely on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel. A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. For though your people, O Israel, may be like the sand of the sea, [Only] a remnant within them will return; A [destructive] end is decreed, overflowing with righteousness. Will the remnant turn to Yeshua or Yahweh? This is Isaiah explaining DT 30:1-6, and which remnant of Israel will be saved - those who turn to YHWH God alone and no other.
{Rom 9:29 NKJV} And as Isaiah said before: "Unless the LORD of Sabaoth had left us a seed, We would have become like Sodom, And we would have been made like Gomorrah."	Paul of course believes the "seed" is Jesus, but that's not the context here either. {Isa 1:7-11 LSB} Your land is desolate; Your cities are burned with fire; Your fields--strangers are devouring them in your presence; It is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, Like a watchman's hut in a cucumber field, like a besieged city. Unless Yahweh of hosts Had left us a few survivors, We would be like Sodom, We would be like Gomorrah. Hear the word of Yahweh, You rulers of Sodom; Give ear to the law of our God, You people of Gomorrah. "What are your multiplied sacrifices to Me?" Says Yahweh. "I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams And the fat of fed cattle;

	And in the blood of bulls, lambs, or goats I take no pleasure.Context again destroys Paul. Not only his straw man here, but God says he doesn't want sacrifices multiplied. Why then would he want his own son to be murdered for anyone?
{Rom 9:30 NKJV} What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness of faith;	So the Gentiles according to Paul have achieved what is impossible by the law and the Prophets?{Eze 14:12-14 LSB} Then the word of Yahweh came to me saying, "Son of man, if a country sins against Me by committing unfaithfulness, and I stretch out My hand against it, break its staff of bread, send famine against it, and cut off from it both man and beast, even [though] these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, by their [own] righteousness they could [only] deliver themselves," declares Lord Yahweh.Noah and Job were Gentiles and didn't get saved by their faith, by Jesus but through their own righteousness.
{Rom 9:31 NKJV} but Israel, pursuing the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness.	Think about the level of blasphemy here and if you believe Paul what it really means about these passages:{Deu 6:25 LSB} "And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, just as He commanded us. {Psa 119:142 NKJV} Your righteousness [is] an everlasting righteousness, And Your law [is] truth.If the law is not a path to attain righteousness, Moses and David lied.
{Rom 9:32 NKJV} Why? Because [they did] not [seek it] by faith, but as it were, by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling stone.	So because they obeyed the words given to Moses, they don't have what God says they have?And then this "stumbling stone" - you do realize if YHWH did what Paul claims, this makes YHWH a further violator of the Torah he gave Moses?{Lev 19:14 LSB} 'You shall not curse a deaf man nor place a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God; I am Yahweh.Paul claims the "god of this world" (Which is YHWH) has not yet given them eyes to see, meaning they are blind.If YHWH then placed a stumbling block before his people whom are blind?How is he not violating the torah he gave Moses?
{Rom 9:33 NKJV} As it is written: "Behold, I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense, And whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame."	{Isa 8:11-20 NKJV} For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying: "Do not say, 'A conspiracy,' Concerning all that this people call a conspiracy, Nor be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled. The LORD of hosts, Him you shall hallow; [Let] Him [be] your fear, And [let] Him [be] your dread. He will be as a sanctuary, But a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense To both the houses of Israel, As a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble; They shall fall and be broken, Be snared and taken." Bind up the testimony, Seal the law among my disciples. And I will wait on the LORD, Who hides His face from the house of Jacob; And I will hope in Him. Here am I and the children whom the LORD has given me! [We] are for signs and wonders in Israel From the LORD of hosts, Who dwells in Mount Zion. And when they say to you, "Seek those who are mediums and wizards, who whisper and mutter," should not a people seek their God? [Should they seek] the dead on behalf of the living? To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, [it is] because [there is] no light in them. The first part of that passage is from here - as you can see, once again completely out of context. The stone of stumbling was IDOLATRY. So if JESUS IS THAT STONE? Jesus is an IDOL. The second portion is even worse as Paul is using a poor translation of the source material.

{Isa 28:11-22 NKJV} For with stammering lips and another tongue He will speak to this people, To whom He said, "This [is] the rest [with which] You may cause the weary to rest," And, "This [is] the refreshing"; Yet they would not hear. But the word of the LORD was to them, "Precept upon precept, precept upon precept, Line upon line, line upon line, Here a little, there a little," That they might go and fall backward, and be broken And snared and caught. Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scornful men, Who rule this people who [are] in Jerusalem, Because you have said, "We have made a covenant with death, And with Sheol we are in agreement. When the overflowing scourge passes through, It will not come to us, For we have made lies our refuge, And under falsehood we have hidden ourselves." Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I lay in Zion a stone for a foundation, A tried stone, a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation; Whoever believes will not act hastily. Also I will make justice the measuring line, And righteousness the plummet; The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, And the waters will overflow the hiding place. Your covenant with death will be annulled, And your agreement with Sheol will not stand; When the overflowing scourge passes through, Then you will be trampled down by it. As often as it goes out it will take you; For morning by morning it will pass over, And by day and by night; It will be a terror just to understand the report." For the bed is too short to stretch out [on], And the covering so narrow that one cannot wrap himself [in it]. For the LORD will rise up as [at] Mount Perazim, He will be angry as in the Valley of Gibeon--That He may do His work, His awesome work, And bring to pass His act, His unusual act. Now therefore, do not be mockers, Lest your bonds be made strong; For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts, A destruction determined even upon the whole earth. What happened to justice as the measuring line for those who trust in the precious cornerstone (YHWH) and RIGHTEOUSNESS the plummet? Those who trust in YHWH _DO_ what is right, they don't make an agreement with death and sheol. The other problem here (and Paul does this a lot) Paul is taking two distinct passages about two different things, taking the tiniest portion out of context - stapling them together and claiming now it's about Jesus. This is complete eisegesis, it's Paul's imagination versus the source material.

{Rom 10:1 NKJV} Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved.	Saved from what? The Salvation promised by YHWH to Israel: {Isa 54:9 NKJV} "For this [is] like the waters of Noah to Me; For as I have sworn That the waters of Noah would no longer cover the earth, So have I sworn That I would not be angry with you, nor rebuke you. This is also why Isaiah 53 does not represent the human sacrifice mythology the NT tries to place over it. Israel's salvation is assured just as the promise to Noah guaranteed that no matter how man behaves, God will not destroy the Earth again. This is his guarantee - and this is also why the apocalyptic themes in the NT are not true.
{Rom 10:2 NKJV} For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.	According to what knowledge? Not God's knowledge as we've already established. {Psa 119:66, 70 LSB} Teach me good discernment and knowledge, For I believe in Your commandments. ... Their heart is covered with fat, [But] I delight in Your law. God's knowledge is connected to keeping the commandments - not believing Paul.
{Rom 10:3 NKJV} For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted to the righteousness of God.	Paul often destroys his own arguments - if they are ignorant of "God's righteousness" then the Tanak he purports to be basing his argument on doesn't contain God's righteousness. {Psa 119:142 LSB} Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, And Your law is truth. It means this statement is a lie, that God's righteousness is not connected to the law at all. If it was, then the natural Israelite, the natural Jew? They wouldn't be "ignorant" of God's righteousness. Then what does he say? That because they reject Paul's Gospel, they seek to establish their own righteousness. This is absolutely a projection of Paul's own sin. {Deu 6:25 LSB} "And it will be righteousness for us if we are careful to do all this commandment before Yahweh our God, just as He commanded us. The righteousness of God is performing the commands he gave Moses. If your righteousness comes by Paul's Gospel? You are the one establishing your own righteousness, just as Paul attempts to do.

{Rom 10:4 NKJV} For Christ [is] the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.	The Christing (Mashiach / Messiah) being the end of the law? Messianics like to render it as follows; For Messiah is the fulfillment of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. Neither of these statements are truth, the goal or "fulfillment" of the law, of doing what the commands say is not pouring oil out over a man, which is what the root of Mashiach means. If it was the goal, don't you think you'd find this truth somewhere in Tanak?
{Rom 10:5 NKJV} For Moses writes about the righteousness which is of the law, "The man who does those things shall live by them."	That is definitely what Moses says; {Eze 20:11 LSB} "I gave them My statutes and made them know My judgments, which, if a man does them, he will live by them. No wait that's Ezekiel and he's agreeing with Moses - So it's clear Ezekiel not only believed Moses, but believed we could do it. {Deu 32:47 CSB} "For they are not meaningless words to you but they are your life, and by them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess." That's Moses - but still not the verse Paul took out of context to build up to his next pretextual lie. If you obey, your life will be preserved. Did God lie to Moses? {Lev 18:1-5 LSB} Then Yahweh spoke to Moses, saying, "Speak to the sons of Israel and say to them, 'I am Yahweh your God. 'You shall not do according to what is done in the land of Egypt where you lived, nor are you to do according to what is done in the land of Canaan where I am bringing you; you shall not walk in their statutes. 'You are to do My judgments and keep My statutes, to walk in them; I am Yahweh your God. 'So you shall keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does them, he shall live by them; I am Yahweh. The context of what Paul is quoting from warns Israel not to copy the nations - ironic that Paul would try taking that to justify what he says next.
{Rom 10:6 NKJV} But the righteousness of faith speaks in this way, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' " (that is, to bring Christ down [from above])	This is the culmination of Paul's claim - and he tries using Torah to justify it. All you have to do is open up the passage Paul is quoting to see the lie. {Deu 30:12 LSB} "It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us and get it for us and make us hear it, that we may do it?'This comes after Moses from YHWH tells us:{Deu 30:9-11 LSB} "Then Yahweh your God will prosper you abundantly in all the work of your hand, in the offspring of your body and in the offspring of your cattle and in the produce of your ground, for Yahweh will return to rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers, when you listen to the voice of Yahweh your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, when you return to Yahweh your God with all your heart and soul. "For this commandment which I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it far [from you].That the written Torah (and this is what I use against Talmudists as well) doesn't need someone from heaven (Which Paul is telling you is Jesus) that you may do it.But Paul cuts out, "that we may do it" to remove the action of Torah and replace it with the faith of Jesus, and even tells you this verse is actually not about our ability to obey Torah - but is about Jesus coming down from Heaven.If this is true, the context of Dt 30:12 is telling you that IT IS NOT IN HEAVEN, that you don't need someone to go up to heaven to retrieve the Torah so you may do it. You don't need Jesus if it is truly about Jesus!

{Rom 10:7 NKJV} or, " 'Who will descend into the abyss?' " (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).	Paul continues in the same context here - but changes "sea" below:{Deu 30:13 LSB} "Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the sea for us and get it for us and make us hear it, that we may do it?' To "abyss" in that it is no longer about crossing the sea that we may find a teacher so we may do it - but Paul again tries to insert Jesus here. The problem is again if you read the verse, if this is Jesus - Moses is telling you what?That you don't need Jesus crossing the sea, or entering the abyss so you may understand Torah to do it.
{Rom 10:8 NKJV} But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach):	Is this what it says? {Deu 30:14 LSB} "But the word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart, that you may do it.Not even close - and in fact again as in the others, Paul cut out the action words and replaced it with "faith".Paul takes the conclusion, that Torah is in our heart so we may do it, and makes it about his word, and putting faith in it.This contradiction alone is enough to reject Paul and his Gospel.
{Rom 10:9 NKJV} that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.	Paul's conclusion after perverting the Torah?If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus you will be saved. 1. None of the Torah or the Prophets say this. 2. Jesus himself doesn't say this and we'll get to this with Paul's next misappropriation.

{Rom 10:10 NKJV} For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.	Is it the mouth's confession that leads to salvation?{Jon 3:10 LSB} Then God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way, so God relented concerning the evil which He had spoken He would bring upon them. And He did not bring [it upon them].I love the book of Jonah as it shows God's love and mercy is not limited to Israel, but extends to Gentiles. The Ninevites were not saved by confessing with their mouth that Jesus is lord. They were saved by their works of righteousness. {Eze 14:12-14 LSB} Then the word of Yahweh came to me saying, "Son of man, if a country sins against Me by committing unfaithfulness, and I stretch out My hand against it, break its staff of bread, send famine against it, and cut off from it both man and beast, even [though] these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job were in its midst, by their [own] righteousness they could [only] deliver themselves," declares Lord Yahweh.Ezekiel extends this to others who have no knowledge of Torah (Job and Noah) and even those who do have knowledge but being in a land of captivity cannot perform it perfectly (Daniel)Daniel couldn't perform most of the written Torah, yet according to Ezekiel God still saw his works as being complete and worthy of being called righteous.Noah and Job had no knowledge of Torah, yet their works still saved them, by their own righteousness - not by faith, not by Jesus.
{Rom 10:11-13 NKJV} For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved."	Paul takes two unrelated verses here again (Isaiah 28:14, which is not about "belief" in the Pauline sense but trusting in Yah and performing the commands, which the rest of Israel wasn't doing when Isaiah wrote that) and Joel 2:32 (which is also misquoted in Acts to be about Jesus)Let's first deal with Jesus debunking Paul then get into Joel. {Mat 7:21 LSB} "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven [will enter].Not everyone who says to me (Jesus) "Lord, Lord"But Paul in misusing Joel 2:32 to be about Jesus and faith? He says WHOEVER or EVERYONE - but this is clearly not true even by the words of Jesus and in fact, most translations are not SERIOUS enough with this "NOT EVERYONE". Ou Pas in greek is what's being translated.Ou = NOT or it's inverting the next word's meaning.Pas = All People / Everyone.Another way to say this in English?No one. It's not saying that any of the people doing that will enter, but those doing the will of the Father - which he then says they performed works in his name (like Paul) but were workers of lawlessness.Now let's go to Joel 2.{Joe 2:32 LSB} "And it will be that everyone who calls on the name of Yahweh Will be delivered; For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem There will be those who escape, As Yahweh has said, Even among the survivors whom Yahweh calls.1. The name called on is not "THE LORD" or "JESUS" but YHWH.2. The context shows us what this means, it isn't just screaming his name in trouble. It has a clear context of what this means. {Joe 2:12-17LSB} "Yet even now," declares Yahweh, "Return to Me with all your heart And with fasting, weeping, and wailing; And tear your heart and not your garments." Now return to Yahweh your God, For He is gracious and compassionate, Slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness, And relenting concerning evil. Who knows whether He will [not] turn and relent And leave a blessing behind Him, [Even] a grain offering and a drink offering For Yahweh your God? Blow a trumpet in Zion, Set apart a fast as holy, call for a solemn assembly, Gather the people, set apart the congregation as holy, Assemble the elders, Gather the infants and the nursing babies. Let the bridegroom come out of his room And the bride out of her [bridal] chamber. Let the priests, the ministers of Yahweh, Weep between the porch and the altar, And let them say, "Pity Your people, O Yahweh, And do not make Your inheritance a reproach, A byword among the nations. Why should they among the peoples say, 'Where is their God?'In Hebrew - this is the concept of Teshuva, of return / repentance and turning back to YHWH alone and away from your sin. This is not just confessing YHWH and being saved, and he goes on to tell you this. {Joe 2:18-21 LSB} Then Yahweh will be zealous for His land And will spare His people. Then Yahweh will answer and say to His people, "Behold, I am going to send you grain, new wine, and oil, And you will be satisfied [in full] with them; And I will never again make you a reproach among the nations. "But I will remove the northern [military force] far from you, And I will drive it into a parched and desolate land, And its vanguard into the eastern sea, And its rear guard into the western sea. And its stench will rise up, and its foul smell will rise up, For it has done great things." Do not fear, O land, rejoice and be glad, For Yahweh has done great things.So AFTER they repent and turn back to YHWH, turn back to DOING what is right?Then YHWH will spare the people and the land.

{Rom 10:14 NKJV} How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how	Indeed and this is a question I asked Christians while I was a Christian. What will happen to those who never had an opportunity to be saved by Jesus without hearing about shall they hear without a preacher?	Jesus and then they died? How shall they believe in him, whom Paul invented and they never heard of?How shall they hear without the preacher crossing the sea?Go back to Deut 30:12-14, which explicitly tells us we don't need that. This is also a repeated promise of being under the "new covenant". {Jer 31:34 LSB} "And they will not teach again, each man his neighbor and each man his brother, saying, 'Know Yahweh,' for they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them," declares Yahweh, "for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more." "They will not teach again" but Jesus says:{Mat 28:20 LSB} teaching them to keep all that I commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age."When he said that do you think he felt the "end of the age" was 2000+ years away?But he's also showing us that he cannot possibly be the fulfillment of the renewal to Israel and Judah.
